

FIERCE RIOTS AT OBERAMMERGAU IN NAME OF "PRINCE OF PEACE" MAY PREVENT PASSION PLAY

Troops Called to Preserve Order Between Factions Led By Men Who Oppose or Maintain the Right Of Man to Play Part Of Christ.

Oberammergau, Bavaria, Nov. 8.—War is raging over the selection of an actor to play the part of the "Prince of Peace" in the passion play in 1910.

Politics is at the bottom of the dispute. A priest leads one party, an actor who has twice before appeared in the Saviour's role is at the head of the other, and so savage have the riots become that troops have been summoned from Munich to aid the local authorities in maintaining order.

The entire population of 2,000 including men, women and children, is divided into hostile camps and such bitterness exists that it is doubtful if the 1910 play will take place at all. The villagers are electors of the various parts in the passion play in which nearly all the citizens of Oberammergau take part. When the balloting began for the 1910 play Guido Lang, who appeared as the Saviour in 1890 and 1900, was again a candidate for the role.

Led by Father Daiser, the village priest, a strong opposition developed to Lang's candidacy on the ground that he was unfit for the part because he recently sought election to the Bavarian diet on the progressive ticket. Lang's personal and political friends rallied to his assistance, but the clericals proved too strong for them and they were defeated. Instead of submitting, however, Lang's friends endeavored to induce the village to reverse its judgment.

The clericals accused the progressives of unfair means, the use of improper influence and attempts to bring in outsiders to swell their strength.

Personal encounters began and several free fights followed. A number of the villagers were badly hurt in the last riot, forcing the authorities to call for military assistance. Lang has not only already twice taken the Redeemer's part, but his forefathers have figured in the same role many times for generations.

FIREMEN RESCUE MANY WOMEN FROM BUILDING

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Fire early this morning consumed a flat building on West Fourteenth street. Fourteen families were rendered homeless. Abraham Golett, aged 16, was burned to death, and Mrs. Dora Lavin and third story window and received fatal Mrs. Ray Benjamin jumped from the injuries on the pavement. Several others were badly burned or injured by jumping. Firemen rescued a number of women and children.

MORPHINE WAS CAUSE OF RUIN

Pittsburg, Nov. 8.—Paul Kelley, who says he is a graduate of Annapolis, son of former United States District Attorney John F. Kelley of St. Paul, Minn., and declares he was a Lieutenant on Admiral Dewey's flagship Olympia at the battle of Manila, is locked up here charged with forging a check. He says morphine caused his ruin. "Yes, I'm a slave to the 'dope' said Kelley. "My parents had me confined to a Minneapolis hospital but I escaped after a year. I contracted illness in the Philippines and at San Francisco in the Marine hospital I was given morphine to relieve my suffering." The case is being investigated.

WEBB GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Liberty, Mo., Nov. 8.—Jesse B. Webb, charged with the murder of his supposed bride, was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to serve eight years in the pen. The jury considered the suicide pact between Inez Walkup and Webb sufficient ground for conviction. The latter testified the girl shot him and then killed herself.

ESCAPING GAS CAUSES DEATH

Bodies of Man and Woman Married the Night Before Found in the Hotel.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 8.—The bodies of Michael Cantin and his bride, whom he married Wednesday night, were found in their apartment in a local hotel yesterday, both having been accidentally asphyxiated by illuminating gas. Cantin and his bride were aged 55 and 45 years respectively. An investigation showed that the gas had been accidentally turned on.

HEIRESS WEDS UNDERTAKER.

Tiffin, O., Nov. 8.—Miss Nan Polan, the favorite niece of Thos. O'Connor, the Joplin multimillionaire zinc king, was wedded yesterday at Dearborn, Mich., to Wm. Schwartz, a Fremont undertaker. The bride recently received $350,000 from her uncle's estate.

NATHANIEL AVRAM

New York, Nov. 8.—Suffering from nervous prostration brought on by overwork as a sculptor, Nathaniel Avram, 23 years old, a pupil and protégé of MacNeil, Bitter, Borgium and other sculptors of note, swallowed 56 grains of bichloride of mercury and died in the prison ward at Bellevue. Although young Avram had won the St. Gaudens prize in the Art Students' league twice in the last two years, and in Paris, from September, 1905, to last April had accomplished work which ordinarily requires at least three years, he was dissatisfied with his progress.

KAISER WILHELM A VERY ILL MAN

Berlin, Nov. 8.—Kaiser Wilhelm is much sicker than his physicians and friends will admit. It leaked out that arrangements have practically been completed to have him spend the winter in southern Europe. His doctors are fearful of the effect of Germany's winter climate on the Kaiser's throat trouble.

LANDLADY SHOT HERSELF WHEN BOARDERS LEFT

Sandusky, Nov. 8.—Driven to desperation due to fear of the future since 50 men had been laid off by the Sandusky Portland Cement company, owing to a fall at the plant, Mrs. Michael Schuller, wife of the proprietor of a boarding house at Bay Bridge, near here, fired a bullet into her breast Friday afternoon. She cannot recover. While the doctors were working over the woman a baby boy was born, dead. Schuller only last week bought the half interest of his brother-in-law in the boarding house. He is a conductor. Monday the "lay-off" order was issued and nearly all of his boarders left him.

JOHNSON WAIVED ASIDE THE CROWN

Cleveland, Nov. 8.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson has waived aside the crown. He has been offered the presidency by the St. Louis Democratic club and by Kentucky, his native state. Even if the two officers did not guarantee either nomination or election Burton's conqueror appreciated them, but waived them aside. "I've got a better job," he said, with a laugh. At Somerville a female board of education was elected.

HIS PROJECTED TOUR.

MAP SHOWING ROUTE OF E. WESTON'S WALKING TRIP FROM PORTLAND, ME. TO CHICAGO, ILL.

Edward Payson Weston, father of the long walk and greatest of out-of-door exercise, is now, at the age of sixty-nine, on a pedestrian journey from Portland to Chicago.

Bishop Leighton Coleman, who is seventy, has just finished a ten days' jaunt through two states and has returned to his duties strengthened and vitalized by the exertions of his trip.

Such performances as these by men of advanced years have again called the attention of all to the manifold advantages of the old-fashioned level-and-toe walking, with shoulders well braced back and lungs inhaling the life-giving country air.

No better example of the value of his own teachings exists than does

APPALLING LIST OF CASUALTIES ON RAILROADS

RECORD IS MORE GROWSOME
THAN THAT OF MANY A WAR
IN PAST YEARS.

SHOWS ALARMING INCREASE

Seven Hundred More Killed in 1907
Than in the Year Previous—Commission's Report.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The Interstate Commerce Commission Thursday made public the total of casualties on the railroads of the United States during the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1907, and the record is a gruesome one. It is more sanguinary than the story of many a war in which the carnage was supposed to be fearful. During the 12 months period in question 5,000 people were killed, and 76,286 injured by the railroads, and these figures only include accidents to passengers and to employees while actually on duty on or about trains. This means that many of those injured died afterward. To put it in another way, for every day of the year 14 persons lost their lives, and 209 suffered more or less serious injury, untold thousands of the latter being crippled for life.

The record for the year 1907 was far worse than it was in 1906, though the latter was sufficiently shocking. Last year 4,225 people were killed and 66,709 injured, which means an increase this year in the terrible score of 775 killed and 9,577 injured. Although the railroads are required by law to equip their trains with safety appliances, there was a decrease during the year of only nine in the number of employees who lost their lives coupling or uncoupling cars and engines. During the six years the commission, under the law of March 2, 1901, has been gathering and compiling casualty statistics, about 25,000 people have lost their lives on the railroads, while over 400,000 have been injured, of whom the vast majority were employees.

The salient facts in the figures for 1907 are, first, that there have been heavy increases in all the items, except accidents in car coupling and from striking against overhead obstructions, and, second, that the number of passengers killed and injured in collisions and derailments has increased to an alarming extent. In this item the very large total reported in 1905, is now exceeded by 17 per cent. The comparative smallness of the increases in casualties due to coupling and uncoupling cars and in accidents to men on the tops of freight cars is undoubtedly due in large measure to improvement in the maintenance and care of automatic couplers and to the increased use of air brakes on freight trains.

INVESTIGATION OF PAPER TRUST WILL BE ORDERED

COMMITTEE OF PUBLISHERS
GIVEN THIS ASSURANCE BY THE PRESIDENT.

BIG INCREASE IN THE PRICE

Of News Print Paper Announced,
Which Will Cost Newspapers
Millions of Dollars.

Washington, Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt Thursday indicated to members of the committee on paper of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, that he will recommend to Congress the abolition of the tariff on press paper, wood pulp and the wood that goes into the manufacture of paper; also that he will make a recommendation to the Department of Justice that it take immediate steps to ascertain whether the anti-trust laws are being disobeyed by the manufacturers of paper.

The promise of the recommendations by the President was obtained after he had listened to the representations of the members of the committee and to a petition from the national organizations of printers, compositors, pressmen and others, all of which set forth the evidence of a combination on the part of the manufacturers of paper for the purpose of controlling the output, regulating and greatly increasing the price and otherwise making burdensome regulations governing the source of supply and delivery of paper.

The history and facts which make up the protest were presented by Mr. McCormick of the Chicago Tribune. His attention was called to what was termed a "conspiracy" by which it was alleged the makers of news printing paper have arranged for an advance of $12 per ton upon the supply of that article for the current year, and for an additional advance next year averaging $10 per ton.

This, it was explained, means a burden imposed on the printing industry of the country of $16,000,000 for the present and $19,000,000 for the coming year. The excuse for these advances on the part of the paper makers is that the cost of wood and labor have increased. This excuse was met in the argument to the President by the statement that the published rate of largest manufacturers of news print paper gives no increased cost of material and manufacture, including the expense of administration of sales, as about 64 cents per ton.

Much mystification had been attempted, it was asserted, to show that the cost of labor had greatly increased, but this was refuted by the statement that the entire cost of labor amounted to less than $2.40. Not one twentieth of the advance in news print paper, it was stated, would go to labor.

The President was told that in all the history of crimes charged against combinations and trusts such a situation is unprecedented. Both the policy of the paper manufacturers to acquire large tracts of timber land, for which speculation, it is charged, the consumer of paper is obliged to pay, and the over-capitalization of the companies were subjects of criticism to the presentation made to the President.

The committee, on leaving the White House, seemed highly gratified by the assurances from the President.

THIRTY YEARS

Licking County Farmer Had Occupied the House in Which He Died Tuesday.

Wagram, Nov. 8.—David Farrand Logan, a farmer, aged 65, living in Wagram, died Tuesday from the effects of a stroke of paralysis. He had lived in one house over 30 years, formerly the village inn. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Rachel Logan, and daughter Nellie. A former wife, Mrs. Elizabeth (Jaynes) Logan and her daughter, Mrs. Nellie (Jaynes) Mead, were killed a few years ago in a railroad accident, while crossing the B. & O. railroad near Reynoldsburg. The funeral was held from the M. E. church at Reynoldsburg, of which he was a member.

CUT HIS THROAT.

Kenton, Nov. 8.—D. I. Bowers of Cambridge, O., a dope fiend, who cut his throat here yesterday when the police attempted to arrest him for trying to enter a house in the hospital, but will recover. His windpipe was severed but the doctors sewed it together.

ANTI-INJUNCTION DEMONSTRATION TO BE FEATURE

Washington, Nov. 8.—Anti-injunction demonstration will probably be the feature of next week's labor convention in Norfolk. Courts which issue, and employers who solicit injunctions will be fiercely arraigned. Resolutions will probably be adopted urging Congress more vigorously to transfer from the bench to the jury box power to punish for contempt outside the court room. It is predicted that an anti-injunction fight will fully commit the American Federation of Labor to politics, and force it to fight for the candidates who can be depended on to advance unionism's cause.

POLITICAL POW-WOW.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The biggest kind of a political pow-wow is scheduled to take place at the White House Saturday, November 16, when the President and some of his New York state friends will take up the question of killing off Governor Hughes' boom.

STRUCK BLIND WHILE PLAYING ON HER PIANO

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 8.—While playing a favorite upon her piano, Miss Grace Day, a pretty student in the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, was suddenly stricken blind Thursday.

The sudden cessation of the music and the piteous cries of alarm from the unfortunate girl brought speedy assistance, and when her landlady, Mrs. M. C. Dayton, and others arrived, they found the girl groping about the room, exclaiming, "I'm blind! I'm blind!"

On the advice of a doctor and an oculist who were immediately called, Miss Day was removed to her home at Ridgeway, Pa.

The only explanation for the sudden stroke is found in an attack of lockjaw which Miss Day had last summer.

SECRETARY TAFT LEAVES MANILA

Manila, Nov. 8.—Secretary of War Taft sailed from Manila for Vladivostok today. He had not intended to leave until tomorrow but found he could delay no longer without danger of missing the trans-Siberia train he wishes to take November 10, for St. Petersburg. A tremendous demonstration was made in his honor by natives as his ship left the harbor. Taft, before his departure, received information that Vladivostok is again quiet and the trip would be without peril.

Jerry McGinnis of Lancaster "skips" school 15 out of 41 days and is sent to the Boys' Industrial school.

SLOWLY ROASTED IN SIGHT OF HIS HELPLESS FAMILY

Urichsville, Nov. 8.—Jacob Reitz, a farmer, went to his barn last night to feed stock. While in the hay mow he over-turned the lantern, setting fire to the hay. He tried to escape through a small window, but with his head and arms through his body stuck and he was roasted to death in sight of his helpless family, the burning building plainly showing his death agonies. His wife fainted at the sight.

PRESIDENT WILL START THE FLEET ON LONG VOYAGE

Washington, Nov. 9.—President Roosevelt will himself start the battleship fleet on its record breaking voyage to the Pacific. Official announcement was made at the White House today that the commander-in-chief is planning to go to Hampton Roads on the Mayflower, leaving Washington on December 15, to review the fleet before it sails December 16. He will give a reception to the captains of the ships on board his yacht, at which he will hand them a little wholesome advice, and wish them Godspeed.

FLAGSHIP OF FARRAGUT SOLD FOR OLD JUNK

Boston, Nov. 8.—Another historic war vessel passed from the naval register today, when the government sold the frigate Saratoga to a Boston firm which will break her up for junk. The Saratoga served as the flagship for Commodore Perry and Admiral Farragut, and at one time was commanded by Admiral, then Captain Evans.

DIPLOMATIC CHANGES.

EXPLOSION KILLED TEN

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 8.—A terrific explosion of two cars of powder near Necozari, Ariz., late yesterday, killed ten men. The men killed were employees of the Montezuma Copper Co.

Doctors Prescribe

Dr. Lorenzo Waite, a Prominent Physician of Pittsfield, Mass., Says That He Has Used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a Tonic Stimulant with Satisfactory Results.

In years past I have used your Pure Malt Whiskey in my practice with very satisfactory results. Recently I had occasion to administer Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as per directions to an anæmic patient of mine, and I anticipate remarkably good results. With many thanks for your introducing a pure tonic stimulant for the benefit of the public and practitioners of medicine, I am, Lorenzo Waite, M. D., Aug. 20th, 1907.

The doctor's letter is one taken at random from thousands of similar ones received extolling the virtues of this great family medicine.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ of the seed and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a pale malt, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances renders it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic, builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces, it makes digestion perfect, and enables you to get from the food you eat the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system, is a promoter of health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold only in sealed bottles—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price, $1.00. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. PATIENTLY WAITS IN LONELY CELL FOR HER TRIAL

AND SLAYER OF EX-SENATOR
BROWN EXPECTS TO BE ACQUITTED.

WHEN JURY HEAR STORY

OF Wrong and Deception Practiced
Upon Her by the Legislator
Whom She Killed.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Sitting alone in her cell, sewing and knitting, trying to keep away thoughts of the terrible ordeal through which she must pass, Mrs. Anna M. Bradley, awaits her trial for the killing of ex-Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah.

Except for the letters of sympathy she receives every day, particularly from those that knew her in the West, she is unaware of the reawakening of public interest in her life story which was so abruptly laid bare by the sensational shooting in a room of the Raleigh hotel on the afternoon of December 8, last year.

Sensitive, refined, of unusual executive and literary ability, she appreciates her situation, and simply waits, making no appeal or excuse, depending, as will her lawyers, on the plain narrative of her sorrowful career to give reason for the tragic climax.

Forced to make her own way Mrs. Bradley gained position through cleverness and perseverance. In Salt Lake City she was a prominent member of women's clubs, organizer of the poets' round table and candidate for city auditor. Here she met Senator Brown. She has made no attempt to gloss over the story of love and deception which followed. The two boys of whom she claims Brown was the father, are now her greatest comfort.

She had been spurned by the man to whom she surrendered everything. He had refused to give her his name and she learned he was about to marry another. Following Brown to Washington she discovered a letter in his room from Mrs. Annie C. Adams, mother of Maude Adams, the actress. Abandoned, frantic and desperate she fired the shot, for the undoing of which, as she has since said, she would gladly give her life.

Insanity will probably be the defense. Although Mrs. Bradley is now perfectly sane, it will be held that at the time of the shooting she was temporarily deranged. Judge Orlando Powers, who has arrived from Salt Lake City to take charge of the defense, says no appeal will be made to the "unwritten law."

Her past will be the defense. Her attorneys will describe it as the old new story of love and deception.

Judge Powers says: "At one time sentiment was somewhat against her, but when the will of Brown was published and the letters he had written her sympathy turned to ward her."

The will cut off Mrs. Bradley's children. Among other things the document made these statements: "I do not think either or any child born of said Anna M. Bradley is my child. I have never married said Anna M. Bradley and never intended to."

One of the letters from Brown to Mrs. Bradley beginning "My Own Dear Wife," and signed "Arthur," reads in part: "Love me as I love you. God knows I have never loved anything so much. Let us stand shoulder to shoulder for life. You are my own dear wife, mine by true love—your gift divine."

APPOINTMENTS CAUSE TROUBLE IN OKLAHOMA

Washington, Nov. 8.—War to the death is threatened against the President by one faction of the Oklahoma Republicans as a result of the federal appointments announced from the White House yesterday. The men who expected the jobs and their friends howl and openly assert that they'll "get even" by instructing the delegates from Oklahoma for "Uncle Joe" Cannon or some other anti-administration presidential candidate. The soreheads claim that in the selection of the new officials, the President was dominated entirely by the rough riders. Gov. Frantz John Abernathy and C. E. Hunter had the President's ear at every stage of the game, they assert.

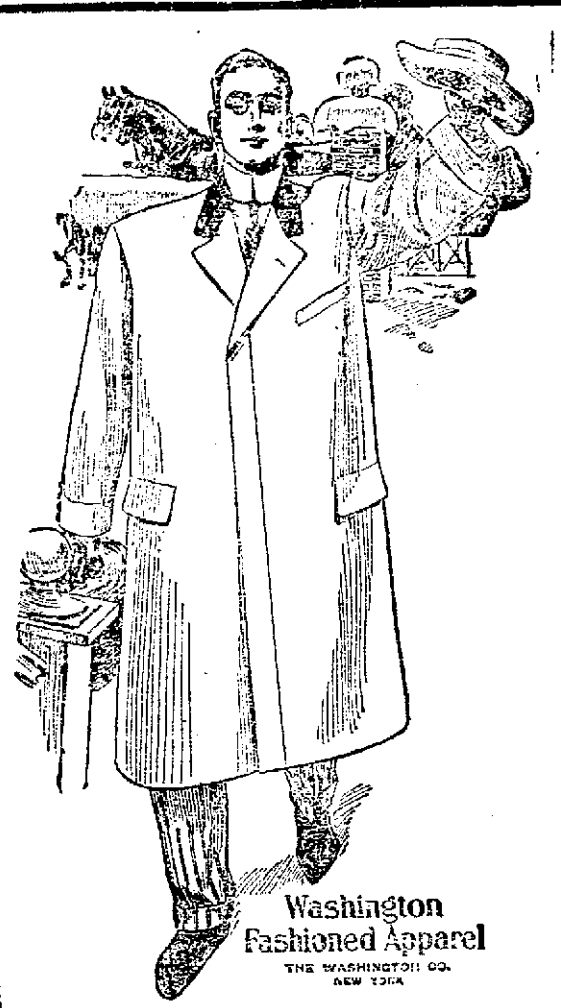

"Now that the rough riders have fixed our business, what are you going to do about it, Judge?" asked one of the disappointed boomers to one of the disappointed candidates.

"I'm going back to the territory and raise hell in politics," replied the man who didn't get the job.

Women Avoid Operations

When a woman suffering from female trouble is told that an operation is necessary, it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the hospital, the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart.

It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after an operation has been decided upon as the only cure.

The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs, have escaped serious operations, as evidenced by Miss Rose Moore's case, of 807 W. 26th St., N. Y. She writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of the very worst form of female trouble and I wish to express to you my deepest gratitude. I suffered intensely for two years so that I was unable to attend to my duties and was a burden to my family. I doctored and doctored with only temporary relief and constantly objecting to an operation which I was advised to undergo. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it cured me of the terrible trouble and I am now in better health than I have been for many years."

This and other such cases should encourage every woman to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before she submits to an operation. Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised.

Mrs. McMillen's Condition.

Mrs. Caroline McMillen, residing at 59 Front street, who sustained a slight stroke of paralysis on October 4, and another one on October 21, whereby the right side was affected, is not getting along as well as could be hoped for, and fears are entertained as to the outcome.

Exaggerated Report.

A report has been circulated to the effect that John Prior, the South Second street restaurant proprietor, had been stricken with paralysis of the throat, and was in a dangerous condition. His many friends will be pleased to learn that it was erroneous as he is simply suffering with a bad cold and hoarseness. He is confined to his home, but expects to be at his place of business tomorrow.

Pony Stolen.

The grey pony owned by Joe Smith the well known colored man, is missing, and a light cart has also disappeared and Joe thinks a man who has been working for him is responsible for the missing animal and vehicle. The man has gone in the direction of Zanesville it is supposed, and the police of that city and surrounding towns have been notified. The pony is eight years old, grey in color and is branded on the left shoulder.

Today is a better day than tomorrow to sit for your Xmas photographs. Miss McCahon will please you.

Four drunks were dosed with the usual prescription this morning.

NOTES OF O. P. MEETING AT CLEVELAND THURSDAY

The redistricting proposition was the sole topic of conversation at the meeting, and after the board of directors report awarding the pennant to Youngstown, and President Morton's statement that the guarantee money was tied up in an Akron savings bank for sixty days, forcing the club owners to wait until January at the earliest, nothing else was discussed at the meeting. Lines were tightly drawn and the best of feeling did not prevail.

President Gibbs, of the Akron team, was emphatic in his statement that his club would withdraw from the league unless the circuit was redistricted. Sam Wright and Grant Whistler, both of whom were in New York also declared for a redistricting. Scott Paisley, of New Castle, also backed up their statements to the limit, while Paul Sturges fought the battle for the southern end of the circuit.

It is more than likely that a special session of the teams interested will be held in a few weeks to take the matter before the national commission, and the aid of Secretary Farrell be enlisted to settle the differences. Unless it is done, there is a possibility of an outlaw league being formed in Ohio that will not do the national game any good. President Morton may be instructed to take up the matter with the national commission at once, while President Carson, of the Central League, may also be drawn into the matter.

Every club had a full representation at the meeting, as follows:

Akron—President H. Gibbs, W. E. Palmer, J. Windsor.

Youngstown—Grant Whistler, Sam Wright.

New Castle—President A. C. Hyde, Scott Paisley, Will Aiken.

Sharon—President George Mahoney, E. E. Stepper, J. Boyle.

Lancaster—President J. A. Davidson, Lewis Rosey, W. M. Notheker.

Mansfield—Paul Sturges.

Marion—President O. Wollenweber, O. S. Webb, George Christian.

E. J. Staiger, George Staiger.

Newark—President A. A. Stasel.

One would have thought that the fall session of the O. and P. league was a gathering of the majors by the large crowd present. President Frank DeHaas, Robinson, of the St. Louis National club, was an interested spectator and assisted in the entertainment of the visitors.

President Frank Baumeister, of the Interstate League, and Sam Koster, of the Erie team, were in the lobby and ready to listen to any proposition, but as usual, they had a leave without anything being done. This is the second year that Erie has tried to become a member of the league.

The $4,000 guarantee fund put up by the eight clubs is tied up in an Akron bank with the usual sixty-day notice. As a result there was no distribution of funds.

Many of the Cleveland players, members of teams in the O. and P. League, were in the hotel dining with the club owners.

Bade Myers, manager of the Canton team, was an interested spectator of the proceedings. Myers is looking for a chance to break into the game at Ft. Wayne, but he left in the afternoon disgusted with the proceedings.

John Bull figures that his country has been successful in 52 per cent of the battles in which he has engaged.

Marriage, divorce, two marriages, two divorces and a remarriage to former husband. This is said to be the experience of a Cleveland woman.

UNIFORMITY OF LAWS.

It is now proposed to agitate the need of uniform laws on taxation in the different states. To advance the cause, a convention is to be held in Columbus, O., in November, to which representatives from every state will be invited, as well as students and professors in universities. Both theoretical and practical men will be heard. The convention is called by the national conference on state and local taxation with the approval of Governor Harris of Ohio and the Ohio board of trade. Immediate uniformity of tax laws is not expected. The idea is to bring men who study taxation together and to get the best thought of the time before the delegates, who will return to their respective states and use their influence before legislatures. It is true that much property escapes taxation because of the different laws of states and that the same class of property pays widely varying rates in the different states.

Demands for uniformity in laws are numerous. The divorce congress advocates a uniformity in divorce and marriage laws. Insurance men think there should be uniformity in insurance laws, or national control should prevail. Students of sociology counsel the same laws in all the states to govern the parole of prisoners. The Torrens land law for the registration of titles, enacted in this state last winter, is a uniformity law. The national association of members of the bar has often recommended uniformity in certain kinds of legislation. The movements for uniformity appear to go along with the movement for increased national control and, in fact, they are national rather than state. The modern states' rights advocates have reason to be concerned about the conventions and congresses to promote the same laws on a given subject in all the states.—Tacoma (Wash.) Ledger.

SUGGESTED REFORMS

The present legislature, which meets next winter, will have the opportunity to pass some legislation which will make history. There is need for considerable legislation along certain lines, and if the present attitude of the two big political parties remains as it is at present, there ought to be little difficulty in doing some legislation for the people. Both parties apparently favor a revision of the present tax law. In fact, both parties have been pledged to a thorough revision which will in a large measure relieve the small property holders from carrying the present unequal tax burdens. Insurance reform is another measure to which both parties have pledged themselves. Both parties have declared for a primary law, whereby the voters may declare their choice of candidates to be placed on the various tickets, including the nomination of United States senator. Besides these measures, for which nearly everybody has declared, there is the county local option measure, for which the temperance elements in both parties are working and against which the liquor interests without regard to political creed will work with all their might.

That there should be some radical changes in the municipal code as it stands now has also been agreed by most persons who have watched its practical application. There are a lot of other things, both little and big, which will probably have the attention of the present legislature when it meets again. Altogether, there will be plenty doing next winter at

DOLLIS DISCHARGED BY JUSTICE STATE MAKING NO CASE

Mao Accused of Attempting to Register Illegally Has Triumphant Vindication Before Justice Nash—Peanut
Politics and Misrepresentation Fall—
Day's News in Other Courts.

The case of the State of Ohio vs. Alex Dollis, charged with attempting to illegally register in Precinct C, of the Third ward, came to an end Friday morning, when the lawyers representing the prosecution, played their last card and lost, and the case was dismissed and the prisoner honorably discharged.

On Wednesday, October 30th, Alex Dollis, a molder employed at the Wehrle stove works, was arrested on affidavit of W. D. Gilbert, one of the registrars of Precinct C, of the Third ward, on the charge of attempting to illegally register. Nothing more was done with the case until Monday afternoon, November 4, a few hours before the polls opened on election day, when the case was partly heard, and continued over until Friday, November 8. The fact of Dollis' arrest on the charge of attempting to illegally register, was made much of by the American Tribune, and circulated broadcast throughout the city in an effort to obtain votes for Randolph. The scheme, however, was too transparent, and reacted, as the Advocate claimed it would, hundreds of Republican workmen, who would not stand for such insult to one of their number, voting for Mr. Atherton, instead of the candidate nominated by the little would-be boss of the Republicans of this city.

Friday morning, Mr. Dollis, with his attorney, P. B. Smythe, was on hand fully an hour before the lawyers for the prosecution showed up, ready to fight to the finish. A number of witnesses were examined in addition to those that were examined at the previous hearing, but nothing of an incriminating nature was elicited and Justice Nash after hearing the arguments of counsel for both sides, promptly dismissed the case and discharged the prisoner on the grounds that no case had been made against him. And thus is another farce ended. The attorneys for the prosecution were Charles Montgomery, C. C. Forry and A. S. Mitchell.

HOW TAXES WERE PAID.

Switzerland has always prided itself on its independence, and in fiscal matters this proud spirit, which will brook no interference with the rights of the individual, even by the state in quest of revenue, has sometimes been exhibited in curious ways, says the Pall Mall Gazette. As the ingenuitous methods of income tax collectors are abhorrent to the freedom-loving Swiss, boxes were once or twice set up in several cantons to receive the voluntary contributions of loyal citizens. It was hoped that this method of relying on the public spirit of the people would prove successful in raising money for public ends, but alas for human nature; in the course of a few years the collectors, on opening the boxes, found nothing but trousers buttons.—Washington Times.

TAX REFORMS NEEDED

From the 1907 annual report of the Taxpayers' association of Hamilton county, Ohio: "We now have a committee at work to co-operate with the Ohio State Tax Commission in securing absolutely needed tax reform, so as to divide the burden justly and fairly. One thing absolutely necessary is the repeal of section 2, article 12, of the Ohio Constitution in order to give the legislature proper power to regulate taxation.

"We favor a reasonable income tax for those with large incomes, and especially the franchise corporations, who usually get off very easy, although their profits are large, owing to lack of competition. A properly graded inheritance tax not affecting the poorer class also meets with favor.

"Real estate mortgages ought to be exempt, as it is double taxation, and in reality serves only to raise the interest paid by the borrower while the money lender reaps the benefit by collecting more from the borrower."

before Judge Brister. It is the case of Mrs. Agnes Romine against Minor Romine. The parties are prominent farming people of Hanover township and for cause of action Mrs. Romine charges her husband among other things with infidelity. A large number of witnesses have been subpoenaed and the case is being warmly contested on both sides.

OFFICERS LOOKING FOR COUNTERFEITERS

Counterfeiters have been at work in Coshocton and a quantity of the "queer" has been passed on the merchants of that city, said a telephone message from that city Thursday. Later in the afternoon the conductor of the local Pan Handle freight train, had eluded a search of the train made at Trinway and had gotten off about a mile east of Newark.

Officers Brooke and Cailan were called by the chief and given instructions to hunt for the men and were furnished with descriptions as complete as possible. The search was made during the entire afternoon but the men were not located. The search may be continued however and they may be located in the city. No bad money has been reported to be in circulation here and the shovers of the phoney may not try to work in the town.

Four paintings by artists of distinction are reproduced in the four panels of the Calendar by a process of color printing which has been recently brought to remarkable excellence.

JUDGE LINDSEY WILL DELIVER SERIES OF LECTURES IN NEWARK

Judge Lindsey of Denver, Colorado, who has a national and international reputation as one of the greatest educational leaders along the child problem that the world has ever known, will deliver a series of lectures in Newark some time in January, the exact date is not yet known.

Judge Lindsey delivered a lecture in Newark last February, and those who were fortunate enough to hear him know what a treat there is waiting for those who will be able to hear him next time, several hundred people were turned away when he lectured here, on account of not being able to get in the Auditorium, every seat was taken from pit to dome.

Mrs. M. A. Swan, who has charge of the work, stated to the Advocate reporter, that there will be three lectures for the children exclusively, and one lecture for the father, mother and friends of the children at the Auditorium, the lectures for the children will be in one of the churches. One lecture will be in the Auditorium. A full account will appear in the papers later.

Grateful Mother Tells Her Experience With Father John's Medicine.

Mrs. James O'Brien of 3715 Hillside avenue, Cincinnati, writes: "My husband has had a very bad stomach for eight or ten years, and has a cough. Doctoring by several good doctors, to no effect. He has been taking Father John's Medicine for about nine months and to our astonishment his trouble has completely disappeared. My husband is a railroad man and is subjected to all sorts of weather, day and night. If he should get wet, or even work long hours, before he lies down he has to have his Father John's. Also I have two boys that have more confidence in this medicine than anything in the drug store. If they have a cough, cold, or even if they feel a little out of sorts, the only comfort they have is Father John's Medicine. When they went to school last winter, as soon as they came home they would say, 'I don't feel good, mamma, you must give us some Father John's Medicine tonight.' You are perfectly welcome to publish anything in regard to the medicine, as far as my family and myself are concerned; we cannot speak too highly of it." (Signed.) Mrs. James O'Brien, 3715 Hillside avenue, Riverside, Ohio.

Cures all throat and lung troubles, not a patent medicine, and free from poisonous drugs or alcohol; 50 years in use.

NEWARK MEN FORM A CLUB

THURSDAY NIGHT WHICH WILL BE ENTIRELY SOCIAL IN ITS NATURE.

Rev. F. B. Nash, Former Rector of Trinity Church, Delivered the First Lecture.

About fifty men of Newark met last night in Trinity Episcopal church and formed the Men's Club of Trinity Episcopal church, and although the club is formed in that church, men of the city from any of the churches will be welcomed to meetings of the club. It is purely a social organization and the meetings will consist of a smoker followed by an illustrated lecture by some well known speaker. Light refreshments will be served.

The subject of the lecture last night was "Mexico," given by Rev. Mr. Nash, formerly pastor of the church, but who for two years past has lived in that country. The meeting was such a success that following the lecture Rev. Mr. Franklin made a motion that the organization be made a permanent affair. The motion carried and the following officers were elected:

President, E. C. Wright.
Vice President, Edw. Thompson.
Treasurer, John Franklin.
Secretary, Dr. Clark B. Hatch.

One meeting a month will be held and on each occasion a lecture will be given. The club is simply gotten up for social purposes and to get the men of the city together for an evening's pleasure.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

MRS. WASHINGTON BELT.

A telegram was received by Mrs. S. O. Preston of West Locust street this morning, announcing the sudden death of her sister, Mrs. Washington Belt, which occurred at her home in Jersey City, N. J. The message stated that Mrs. Belt suddenly dropped dead while going about her home as usual. While her age was 73 years a letter just received from her a day or so ago, said she was enjoying very good health.

The deceased was born in the village of Chatham in this county. With her husband she moved to New York City many years ago. Besides Mrs. Preston other relatives here are nieces, Mrs. Henry Sachs of Hudson avenue, and Mrs. James Moore of Clinton street. She has frequently visited here, and with her maid, spent all of the past summer here at the hotel Sherwood.

The funeral will take place from her late residence in Jersey City on next Monday evening.

Mrs. Preston and Mrs. Sachs, and probably Mrs. Moore will be in attendance.

WALTER R. DOWNEY.

Word was received in Newark Friday announcing the death at Cleveland on November 7, of Walter R. Downey, who formerly lived on Elmwood avenue, opposite the North Fourth street school building. Mr. Downey, who had been employed for several years by the Pennsylvania Railroad company, was ill for several months with a complication of disorders. He left a widow and two small children.

W. W. JONES' FUNERAL.

Mr. Worts Jones of Portsmouth, and Mr. Marion Jones of Ironton, father and brother of William W. Jones, the B. & O. brakeman who died at the Sanitarium, are in the city to take charge of the remains. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

AUTOMOBILE

Used by Handsomely Dressed Cracksmen Who Escaped After Dynamiting a Safe.

Florence, Ky., Nov. 8.—Five handsomely dressed cracksmen dashed into Florence early today in a red automobile, dynamited the safe in the Florence Deposit bank, partially wrecked the building and after firing a volley at citizens who rushed to the bank, gave them the laugh and sped down the pike. An examination of the bank showed that no money was taken from the safe. Bloodhounds are on the trail.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

Ravena, Nov. 8.—Charged with arson, grand larceny and horse stealing, Lee Gray, aged 18, was taken from his bed at the home of his parents in Freedom, and brought to jail here. He entered a plea of not guilty and was bound over to the grand jury. Lee is charged with stealing a horse and carriage belonging to A. C. Whitney, and burning the barn on September 26. It is thought Lee had an accomplice and another arrest is expected to be made soon.

TOO MUCH WHISKY

Bellefontaine, Nov. 8.—R. H. Valentine, a druggist at Belle Center, has been arrested, charged with violating the local law in the prohibition town. The specific charge is that in compounding a "prescription" he put in an undue quantity of whisky. Valentine is prominent in church circles.

MISSING CORONER BACK.

Sadusky, Nov. 8.—Dr. J. S. McClellan, former coroner of Erie county, who mysteriously disappeared five months ago, has returned to the city and announced that he will resume his practice. He said he left because he thought his absence would improve conditions.

ASSAULT, NOT MURDER.

Delaware, Nov. 8.—Ernest Knoder of Sanbury, the lad jointly indicted with Henry Dalton, a Columbus negro, for the murder of Chris Horn, a Big Four engineer, in a street quarrel was convicted of assault and battery. Judge E. M. Wickham told the jury that the evidence did not permit a stronger verdict.

OFFERS STAMPS: IS ARRESTED.

Mansfield, Nov. 8.—When Don B. Wilson, representing himself to be traveling for an insurance company of Philadelphia, called at the local postoffice and asked to have cashed $38.29 in 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, and 10 cent stamps, which he represented had been sent to him by his company for expense money, the questioning became so close that Wilson admitted that the stamps had been given to him by F. E. Coss, who was then waiting for him at the hotel. The latter was taken in by the police and said that until recently he had been employed in the milling department of the F. B. Myers & Brothers Pump company at Ashland. This firm was communicated with and an alleged shortage in the stamp department was unearthed.

CARRIAGE COMPANY FAILS.

Dayton, Nov. 8.—The Kaufman Buggy company of Mansfield, went into the hands of a receiver last evening on the application of James A. Kaufman, its secretary and its heaviest stockholder and creditor. Col. T. J. Kaufman of this city, county auditor and president of the company, was appointed receiver. The assets of the company are fixed at $150,000 and its liabilities at $95,000. The concern is one of the largest of its kind in the United States and is said to be the finest equipped.

COMES FROM LONDON TO MARRY.

Marion, Nov. 8.—Miss Mabel Oliver Gertrude Veness, a pretty young woman from London, Eng., arrived here yesterday and last evening was wedded to Frederick Upton, her childhood sweetheart. Five years ago Upton came to America to make his fortune. He settled in this city and having obtained a lucrative position after serving an apprenticeship in a local shop, sent for Miss Veness.

FLASHES PIPE FOR GUN.

Springfield, Nov. 8.—Fred Thompson got into a quarrel in a cigar store Wednesday night and flashed the stem end of his pipe. He was promptly arrested and had to appear in police court after a night in the city prison on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. He was released when the facts became known.

CAPTAIN KELEHER

New York, Nov. 9.—In the stalwart person of Bernard Keleher, acting captain, the tenderloin has one of the youngest of the long line of police tsars who have ruled the important precinct since the days of long ago when big "Alec" Williams coined the phrase that was destined as the nick-name of the hotel and theatre district, the police centre of which is the old West Thirtieth street station.

Captain Keleher is modest as well as young and brave. He is thirty-five years old and has been a policeman since he was twenty-one. He is one of the few men on the force who by heroism at the risk of life have won the coveted privilege of wearing embroidered upon their sleeves just above their service stripes the bronze star that stands as the police badge of courage.

Physically Captain Keleher is a young giant, standing several inches more than six feet in height, straight as a statue of Apollo, athletic and with the erect carriage of an officer in a picked corps of grenadiers. In point of physical endowment he is a fit successor of Williams, Schmittberger and others of the line of Tenderloin tsars, who, after having ruled the district with more or less distinction, afterward passed on to the higher rank of inspector.

THE PAY CAR.

The good old days are gone. In these heathen times railroad men are paid by check. Of the pay car and its luxurious travels C. F. Carter writes to the American Magazine as follows:

"A metal coin rack crammed to the muzzle with three denominations of yellow boys, flanked with silver, and on the desk behind it a very large wooden tray, on which were long columns of yellow coins—aye ever see anything so pretty in all your life? No wonder your eyes stuck out until you could have used them for hat pegs.

"And all the time an exquisitely musical 'tinkle, tinkle, clink-clink,' welled up from the coin rack and counter in response to the calls of the assistant paymaster. Talk about Beethoven's symphonies!

"If it were not for that strong wire screen you could have touched that fascinating tray, or the infinitesimal fraction of a second a wicked thought flitted through your brain. Then you almost fainted as your roving eye stared down the barrel of a monstrous revolver. It was only in a rack but it was within easy reach of the paymaster's hand and most eloquent for all that. Half a dozen of its fellows lay in the handiest places, while as many Winchester lying on tables and settees came in strong on the chorus.

"Hurriedly your vagrant wits busied themselves with all the Sunday school lessons you had ever learned. As your subconsciousness perceived that the head of the road's secret ser-

ECZEMA CONQUERED

By a Grand, Old Remedy.

READ THIS EXPERIENCE.

The following story is unsolicited, and its truthfulness is evident. It is only one of many tales of great suffering from Eczema and a radical cure after all hope was lost.

Palmer's "SKIN-CURE" Treatment is well-named, for it effects cures where they seemed impossible. It is not miraculous but scientific.

ECZEMA HAD TO YIELD.

A grateful husband sends the pleasing record of his wife's complete cure from Eczema after all hope had gone: "At my wife's solicitation and from a feeling of personal gratitude, I wish to tell you what Palmer's 'SKIN-CURE' has done for her. For two years past she had suffered tortures from Eczema. I consulted specialists all over the country in an effort to cure her, but it was money thrown away. It would take a good sized trunk to hold all the lotions and ointments that we had purchased. My wife had become so despondent at the repeated failures that life seemed hardly worth living. Some three months ago we went into a shop in Akron, Ohio, where we had been in the habit of trading, and the proprietor suggested your remedy. Had reason that since we had lost faith in everything, but the druggist recommended them so highly, I said, 'Well, we will try a cure of the skin, a box of the ointment and a bottle of the remedy.' When my wife applied the ointment, she told me a hurt her so that she could hardly endure it, but at my urgent request she continued the treatment. Her hands were right, and her ankles were also badly affected. Today there is not a sign of Eczema on either hands or feet. We are not acquainted with you, but knowing that your remedies have worked this wonderful change, thought you would like to know it."—A. Simon, Akron, Ohio.

The Palmer "SKIN-CURE" Treatment thoroughly eradicates all Skin and Blood Diseases, including Eczema, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Erysipelas, Acne, Scall, Pimples, Blackheads, Ringworm, Tetter, Itch and Oak Poisoning, Itching Affections, Piles, Burns, Bruises and Sores, also Constipation and all Liver and Blood Diseases.

DR. JAMES HEAD-ACHE POWDERS

CURE They soothe, heal and restore.

A Great Nerve Balm It Cures Headaches, Neuralgia and All Kindred Affections by Removing the Cause.

When the nerves become swollen and irritated they naturally pain and ache; these pains and aches are called Headaches, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatic Rheumatism, Etc. DR. JAMES' HEADACHE REMEDY cures this condition by healing and curing the irritated and swollen nerves; when this is done the trouble disappears at once. Heretofore, there seems to have been nothing that would cure this disease and prevent its return. In other words, they were only able to give temporary relief, while this great remedy feeds and strengthens the weakened nerves and restores them to perfect health and activity.

They give immediate relief and will effect a permanent cure.

CATARH BLOOD UNHEALTHY CATARRH SYSTEM DERANGED

The entire inner portion of the body is covered with mucous membrane; this membranous tissue is abundantly supplied with blood vessels, veins, arteries, and capillaries. Each of these is constantly supplying to this tissue or lining, blood to nourish and strengthen it and keep the system healthy. When the blood becomes infected with catarrhal matter it is not able to furnish the required amount of healthful properties, but feeds the parts with impurities which damage the membranes and tissues so that they become irritated and inflamed, and Catarrh, with all its disagreeable and dangerous symptoms, is established in the system. There is a constant ringing in the ears, a thin, mucous discharge from the nostrils, the face has an offensive odor, slight fever often accompanies the disease, and gradually the entire health becomes affected and the system upset and deranged. In its earlier stages, when Catarrh is confined to the nose and throat, sprays, washes, inhalations, etc., are of little avail, and in a way beneficial, because they are clearly and usually antiseptic, but each treatment has no curative effect, because it does not reach the blood. To cure Catarrh the blood must be purified, and this is just what S. S. S. does. It goes down into the circulation and attacks the disease at its foundation; it removes the cause and makes the blood pure and healthy. Then the blood vessels are filled with fresh, reinvigorated blood, which is carried to all the mucous surfaces and tissues, the inflammation and irritation are corrected, the symptoms all disappear, the health is improved and Catarrh is permanently cured. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free to all who write.

How the Inventor Has Perfected His Wireless System.

MESSAGES SENT ACROSS SEA

Communication First Established in 1901 For a Distance of One Hundred and Eighty-three Miles—Other Interesting Tests Followed—The First Wireless Messages.

Marconi's recent success in perfecting his wireless system so that commercial messages could be sent across the Atlantic has caused widespread interest in his work. It was on Jan. 23, 1901, that Marconi established wireless communication on his system between St. Catherine's, in the Isle of Wight, and the Lizard, in Cornwall, a distance of 183 miles, thus proving the principle of the noninterference of the curvature of the earth, which interference was anticipated by many men of learning and confidently predicted by the cable companies' experts.

These results justified Mr. Marconi in recommending the erection of a high power station, with the object of telegraphing wirelessly across the Atlantic, says the New York Times. Such a station was erected at Poldhu, in Cornwall, England, and on Dec. 12, 1901, the first clear and intelligible signals sent across the Atlantic were received from Poldhu at a temporary station located near the city of St. John's, in Newfoundland.

In July, August and September of 1902 Mr. Marconi, at the invitation of the Italian government, made a cruise in the warship Carlo Alberto and during the voyage carried out important tests in wireless telegraphy. During these experiments messages transmitted from Poldhu were received across land and water—first, nearly as far as Cronstadt, in the gulf of Finland, Russia, a distance of 1,400 miles; second, at Gibraltar, across the whole of Spain, over a distance of 1,000 miles, and, third, in the Mediterranean, off the coast of Corsica, over a distance of 1,000 miles, although the whole of France and part of the Alps intervened between the two stations.

Messages in nearly all positions and places visited by the cruiser were received either on Mr. Marconi's receiver, working a tape instrument, or by means of his magnetic receiver. The reports on these tests were signed by Admiral Mirabello, the present head of the Italian navy.

As a result of the success of these tests the Italian minister of marine, at the request of the king of Italy, issued orders that the Carlo Alberto should be placed at Mr. Marconi's disposal for the purpose of assisting him in the establishment of communication between Canada and England. On Oct. 20, 1902, the Carlo Alberto left Plymouth and sailed for Sydney, N. S., and messages were received from Poldhu throughout the voyage to Sydney, a distance of 2,500 miles.

After a few weeks' preliminary work at the station, which had, in pursuance of arrangements made between the Canadian government and Mr. Marconi, been erected at Glace Bay, Cape Breton, the following message was transmitted on Dec. 16, 1902, to the London Times by Dr. Parkin, its own special correspondent:

Times, London: Being present at transmission in Marconi's Canadian station, have honor sent through Times inventor's first wireless transatlantic message of greeting to England and Italy.

On Dec. 19 to Lord Knollys, Buckingham Palace, London:

Upon occasion of first wireless telegraphic communication across Atlantic Ocean, may I be permitted to present, by means of this wireless telegram transmitted from Canada to England, my respectful homage to his majesty the king?

Glace Bay.
On Dec. 20, 1902, from Lord Minto, then governor general of Canada:

To His Majesty the King, London: May I be permitted to congratulate your majesty on success of Marconi's great invention connecting England and Canada?

On Dec. 22:
Times, London: Government of Canada, through Times, desires to congratulate British people on accomplishment by Marconi greatest feat modern science yet achieved.

CARTWRIGHT,
Acting Premier, Ottawa.

The following replies were received by cable from Europe, as the Poldhu station was not then equipped so as to transmit messages in a reliable manner from England to Canada:

From his majesty King Edward VII.:
Signor Marconi, Canada:

I have had the honor of submitting your telegram to the king, and I am commanded to congratulate you sincerely from his majesty on the successful issue of your endeavors to develop your most important invention. The king has been much interested by your experiments, as he remembers that the initial ones were commenced by you from the royal yacht Osborne in 1888.

Also the following from King Edward VII.:
Marconi, from Governor General's Secretary:

Am desired by governor general to inform you that his excellency had received following cable from his majesty: I am much interested by the wireless message which you have sent me and am delighted at the success of Signor Marconi's great invention which brings Great Britain and Canada into still closer connection.

EDWARD R. I.
Numerous other messages, aggregating several thousand words, were sent afterward sent from Cape Breton to England.

Mr. Marconi then proceeded to his other high power station which had been erected at Cape Cod in Massachusetts, U. S. A., and early in January, 1903, sent the following complete wireless telegram across to Poldhu in Cornwall, England, from the president of the United States to his majesty the king of England:

To His Majesty King Edward VII.: To taking advantage of the wonderful triumph of scientific research and ingenuity which has been achieved in perfecting the system of wireless telegraphy, I extend, on behalf of the American people, my most cordial greetings and good wishes for you and the people of the British empire.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
The following is a copy of King Edward's reply, sent (for reasons previously given) by cable:

To the President, White House, Washington:

I thank you most sincerely for the kind message I have just received from you through Signor Marconi's transatlantic wireless telegraphy. I sincerely reciprocate, in the name of the British empire, the cordial greetings and good wishes which are expressed by you on behalf of the American nation, and I heartily wish you and your country every possible prosperity.

EDWARD R. I.
Experiments have been going on at Glace Bay constantly since then, and the first message sent was from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of the Dominion of Canada, to London Standard. In it Sir Wilfrid congratulated the English people upon the establishment of this new means of communication between Great Britain and Canada.

PRESIDENT'S MORNING DIP.

His Swim in Bear Lake Added Two Members to Mollycoddle Club.

One morning recently at his hunting camp on Bear lake President Roosevelt announced that he could not go without his morning swim any longer and said that the next morning he would go in, says a Stamboul (La.) dispatch to the New York Tribune.

"If you do I'll follow," exclaimed Mr. McIlhenny.

"And so will I," cried Dr. Lambert.

Before daylight Mr. McIlhenny and the doctor were awakened by a shout from the president as he left his tent beside the clubhouse. They rushed out just in time to see the president plunge into the water and stood amazed as he struck out for the island, a couple of hundred yards from shore.

"Come on in, fellows. The water's fine!" cried the swimmer as he looked over his shoulder and saw the shivering forms on land.

"You go first," exclaimed Dr. Lambert.

"No, after you, my dear doctor," politely replied Mr. McIlhenny.

Neither went. In a few minutes the president reached the island and went ashore.

"What's the matter? Come ahead!" he cried.

"The doctor is afraid of the water," said Mr. McIlhenny.

"And McIlhenny does not want to get wet," shouted Dr. Lambert.

As the president plunged into the lake once more to return to the mainland his valiant comrades fled into the clubhouse and buried themselves in the warm bedclothing. At breakfast, half an hour later, the president nominated them for membership in the "Mollycoddle club," and they were elected unanimously.

Milk From Slot Machines.

Penny-in-the-slot milk delivery machines are the feature at the shops of a dairy company in Westminster, England, says the Philadelphia Ledger. From the door of each of these establishments protrude a brass spout and a handle. There are also the customary slot and a notice stating that only pennies can be used. All that purchasers have to do is to put in their pennies, turn the handle and hold their jugs to receive the half pint of milk which is thus released from a twenty quart tank. If they need a pint of milk the performance must be gone through a second time. The automatic delivery enables the customers to purchase milk at all hours of the day and night.

Electric Power in Mines.

Among the improvements that are being introduced in British coal mines are the use of electric power and compressed air for hauling coal out of the pits and ingenious methods of carrying miners to their work, saving the strength they would lose in walking.

Motorists in Swiss Army.

The Swiss army will soon include a corps of volunteer motorists. They will have a special uniform and will be armed with revolvers.

A Ballad of Balloon Week.

The chauffeur's seen his little day.
He's been shoved to the rear;
He hanks in vain upon his way.
Men neither see nor hear.
Their necks are stretched, their eyes aloft.
A-watching cloudland's beats.
While from above this song comes soft
In downward fluttering notes:

Balloonacy,
Balloonacy,
It is the latest fad;
Balloonacy,
Balloonacy,
The world is airship mad!

The pensive farmer, as one hurt,
Now thrusts his horny hand
Adown the neckband of his shirt
In search of much coarse sand.
A bag of it has dropped kerplunk
Upon his shining head.
And while he curses, chuck by chuck,
He hears this song overhead:

Balloonacy,
Balloonacy,
It is the latest fad;
Balloonacy,
Balloonacy,
The world is airship mad!

On yonder tree, in distant field,
A speck has seen to shoot;
The tree was never known to yield,
But now it bears strange fruit.
For there is lodged in its crown
And hangs there by its belt
A cloud pusher who can't get down
And chafes this lay heartfelt:

Balloonacy,
Balloonacy,
It is the latest fad;
Balloonacy,
Balloonacy,
The world is airship mad!

MODEL CAPITAL CITY.

Scheme Proposed by Oklahoma to Erect One.

WILL SELECT VIRGIN SITE.

All Public Institutions to Be Grouped in Place Built on Ideal Lines—New State to Employ Architects and Engineers to Lay Out Grounds.

Shall the people of Oklahoma erect an ideal capital city, in which would be grouped all the state institutions, or shall they be distributed over the state in separate locations, as a sort of pap to each section? is a question that is now being agitated throughout the new state, writes a Muskogee (I. T.) correspondent of the Chicago Post.

Argument for the united plan presents the opportunity of building a city that would be the only one of its kind in the world, where every building and its surrounding grounds could be laid out on a plan of absolute permanency and with relation to its surroundings and its contemporary state institutions. This plan, it is asserted, would save the taxpayers of the state $5,000,000, or $25 for each voter in the state.

For the other plan it is argued that certain towns in the state would be given one institution each, and the state would thereby divide its property and extend a certain state interest to the various counties where such institutions were located.

Residents of cities where there are hopes of landing some state building favor the latter plan. The average citizen, who has no favorite town, wants the state buildings centralized under the ideal city plan.

Some of the strongest men in the state are working on the ideal capital city plan. They propose to have the state elect a nonpartisan commission which shall have entire charge of the work of building this city. It is proposed the state shall condemn two or three townships as a site within fifty miles of the exact geographical center and then let the commission select the most advantageous city location out of this prescribed area.

Expert engineers and architects would be employed to lay out the site and place the grounds for each building in a general scheme with the other institutions. Here would be located the state capitol, the penitentiary, the asylum, normal schools, agricultural college, some of the experiment stations, school of mines and other institutions supported or endowed by the state. When all the land necessary for the state buildings should be segregated the remainder could be laid off in town lots and sold for residences or business.

Conservative town site men say that in this manner the state could sell at the first sale $5,000,000 worth of lots, which would be available for the construction of the state buildings. By other plans the taxpayers must pay for the buildings. In addition to this, as the city grew additions could be laid out and sold by the commission, and the state would have a big income from these sales for many years.

In addition to the state buildings, the commission would also control the municipal property. The state would own and operate all street car, light, water, telephone and other municipal franchise properties. As the streets are laid out water and sewer mains, telephone and telegraph wires are to be laid under the streets in conduits, and the street once made would seldom have to be disturbed—in other words, as the city unfolded it would conform as near as possible to modern methods and requirements.

To carry this plan into effect it will be necessary for the legislature to call an election for the people to vote the needed power to a commission or other body to have charge of the proposition. It is believed that the first state legislature will consider such a call.

The enabling act provides that the state capital shall remain at Guthrie until 1913. This gives five years for a decision as to a permanent capital. This would also give time in which this comprehensive plan of a model capital city could be carried into effect.

Corridor Cars for India.

The East Indian railway intends shortly to put corridor trains, built after the most approved American design, on the Calcutta-Bombay run, and eventually similar trains are to take the place of the present mail trains to Delhi and beyond, says Engineer. The new carriages, which are almost ready, are luxuriously upholstered.

In the Swim.

We've been to see John Drew
And other fine theaters.
The Hippodrome and Hammerstein,
And now we tip the waiters.
Indeed, we've moved into
A neighborhood of rank—
We've done it all since father drew
The money from the bank.

Before the panic came
A phonograph was ours,
And to the park we'd go
To while the Sunday hours.
But now the uplift is
For us—I must be frank;
We're going some since father drew
The money from the bank.

Oh, father has a hat
That's big and shiny black,
And mother wears a toque
That's balanced on her back.
Our noses pierce the air,
We stare at folks quite blank;
We're bloated, we are, since father drew
The money from the bank.

We never rush the can
(We buy it now in cases),
And as for beef and beans,
They make us hide our faces.
For lobster is our dish,
With cheese that's very rank—
Since father drew the money from the bank.

"IT'S A LIE

"A MEAN, DESPICABLE LIE," SAYS MRS. HELEN MALONEY-OSBORNE.

She Denies That She Ever Eloped With or Married the Young Englishman.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—"I never married Samuel Clarkson. It is all a lie—a mean, despicable lie. I never went abroad with him. I never eloped with him. There is nothing between us and never was. Now it's all settled and I won't say one word more," said Helen Maloney-Osborne, while hurrying from her father's mansion Thursday to his summer home at Spring Lake, New Jersey.

Arthur Herbert Osborne, who has been reconciled to his wife, went by another route to Spring Lake cottage. So did Martin Maloney, her father, along a different track, while Mrs. Maloney, the mother, rushed over still another trail to the summer home in New Jersey.

At midnight Spring Lake held all the persons enmeshed in this most tangled domestic web—save only Clarkson.

The flight of the Maloneys and Mr. Osborne was attempted with the same secrecy that has characterized the whole adventure from the moment the heiress daughter (she was surreptitiously married to Osborne to the return of her father from the hunt for her abroad.

According to reports that came later from friends of the family it was decided that the marriage be formally sanctified by the Catholic church through the dispensation of an archbishop. That is in spite of the fact that a Long Island Presbyterian minister performed the previous ceremony when Miss Maloney eloped with Osborne several months ago.

Andrew P. Maloney said: "This is a fiendish outrage to track us so. This trouble is private trouble. I wish all reporters were on the bottom of the sea."

Miss Maloney, it will be officially said, quit her home and the ties that bound her to Osborne in a passing vagary of innocent love of adventure without counting at all the cost of her boyish act. Arrived in Montreal in Clarkson's company after the all day journey, she was surprised to find that he had already procured a marriage certificate and insisted that a wedding between them take place at once. Now, since the girl declared such a thing impossible, and fled without delay back to the state, where she took refuge in a Catholic convent but a few miles from her father's home. There, according to the expected statement, she remained in seclusion, not knowing what to do until her father, returning from Europe, insisted upon her return to his home and the church marriage that should blow away the breath of scandal.

UNPROFITABLE DREAMS.

He does not care for common things,
Like doing simple chores,
But how his head takes on wings
And with what ease it soars
As he sits by the kitchen stove
When daylight is near spent
And tells how things would start to move
If he were president.

The barn needs shingling, since it leaks
With cold, lower of rain,
For axle grease the wagon squeaks,
And tons of hay have lain
Through half a dozen showers or so
The white has drabs are bent
On how the truck would like to go
If he were president.

His fencers from neck are down,
The roses are in the cot;
He saw it in a dream or town,
A work from yesterday
And yet to making some repair
He would be a bit late
If he were president.

He started out to milk the cow
A half an hour ago,
And met a neighbor with his plow,
So sat right down to show
How all are the times and what
This view of grinding meant
And what would be and what would not
If he were president.

The pump is out of order quite,
And by the window at night
Hears water from the creek
Because he must have time to think
Not how to pay the rent
But how to make the bugs bite black
If he were president.

And you, my friend, does your barn leak,
Your fences need repair?
Does your pump not pump water and squeak
Or do you sometimes shake your chains
And is your fence bent
On how the truck would like to go
If he were president.

New York, Nov. 8.—With $10,000,000 in gold in her strong box, and a new trans-Atlantic record to her credit, the giant Cunarder Lusitania, arrived at her docks here today. She completed the run across the Atlantic at 1.40 this morning, but had to lie outside the bar until morning because the Ambrose channel has no beacon lights. She came up at high tide today.

The time of the liner to the bar was announced as four days, 19 hours and ten minutes, 42 minutes better than on her last voyage. A storm encountered yesterday afternoon prevented the giantess from chopping an hour or two off her record. Her best day's run was 618 knots, beating her former record of 617 knots and she averaged a trifle better than 24 knots an hour for the entire trip.

New York, Nov. 8.—Leslie Shaw, former secretary of the treasury, and a "receptive" candidate for president, took a fall out of the church people who recently refused to send Vice President Fairbanks as a delegate to the coming Methodist general conference because he served cocktails to the president, in a speech last night. His utterance was all the more startling because delivered at a reception to a church man, the Rev. John Wesley Hill, newly appointed pastor of the Metropolitan Temple. The fact that any person served a cocktail to the president, Shaw declared, is no reason for his becoming ineligible to a church conference. Shaw came in for further notice when Dr. Hill declared he considers the former secretary the greatest statesman of his day and predicted he will be the Republican standard bearer next year.

NEW BOOKINGS FOR HITCHCOCK

Given by Klaw & Erlanger After the Proposed Tour Had Been Cancelled.

New York, Nov. 8.—Pretty strong evidence in favor of their client has been obtained by the attorneys for Raymond Hitchcock as was indicated today when Henry W. Yesterday after a conference with his star Savage applied for new bookings from Klaw & Erlanger.

Today he announced that he had received them. Contrary to first reports Flora Zabelle (Mrs. Hitchcock), will not play the title role in the second "Verry Widow" company, but will continue to support her husband in "A Yankee Tourist."

FEWER ACCIDENTS TO RAILROADS

Pennsylvania officials have just issued an important rule for yard service which will probably result in fewer fatalities and less serious accidents in the yard service. The yard crews have been warned against the practice of jumping on the running board of yard engines, either on the pilot or on the tender, when the engine is approaching them. The orders are that the habit must be stopped at once. While most of the men become adept at the quick grasp and jump to safety, there are now and then slight missteps which mean accident or death.

PINK RIBBON

Given the Mrs. Marshall Field Roses
in Contest With the Mrs. Potter
Palmer Blooms.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—All Chicago society has been divided into factions by the battle of roses which was waged at the Coliseum flower show last night, and which will go down in history as the pinkest and most fragrant contest in modern times.

The Mrs. Marshall Field roses, pink, proud-petalled and highly perfumed were arrayed against the Mrs. Potter Palmer beauties, equally pink and proud, which are the latest bidders for social recognition and prizes.

It was a hard task for the judges, but before the end of the evening the Field blooms in the Servos vase were wearing the blue ribbon. The Mrs. Potter Palmer rose led its competitor by two points in color and one point in form.

tendered to the visitors by the Board of Trade in the forenoon, the veterans and their friends assembled at the First Baptist church, where addresses were heard and fraternal greetings extended.

Governor Vordeman and Mayor Griffith, for the city, welcomed the visitors most cordially, and their kindly words were responded to by Major General Granville M. Dodge.

Perhaps the most interesting feature of the day was the address by Major General Frederick D. Grant on "The Campaign of Vicksburg." General Grant told his personal recollections of those events, which he witnessed when he was but a lad, accompanying his father, General U. S. Grant, the hero of that siege.

Gen. Stephen D. Lee, commander of the United Confederate Veterans, did much toward the entertainment of the men whom he once engaged in mortal combat. He made an address which was happy in its felicitous greetings, and was warmly cheered when he had concluded.

Miss Lillian Moore recited, "The Bravest Dead," in a most impressive manner.

FORMER SUPREME COURT CLERK
EMERSON AND STATE SEN.
ATOR AUSTIN

TRIED IN SUPREME COURT

Are Facing a Charge of Conspiracy to Falsify a Public Record—
Penalty of 20 Years.

Columbus, Nov. 8.—In a hearing before the Supreme court Thursday of the proceedings to revoke the certificate to practice law held by Senator L. L. H. Austin of Toledo, J. G. Obermeyer, clerk of the court, testified that in the fall of 1906, while Austin was in the private office of Lawson E. Emerson, former clerk of the court, Emerson secured a blank certificate of admission to the bar, and after taking it into the room with Austin, returned and affixed the seal of the court to the certificate, and the two left the office together.

Mr. Obermeyer declared that in his opinion the alterations which have been made in the journal of the court are in the handwriting of Mr. Emerson. He said he found the doctored record about two months ago, when directed where to look in a letter from Senator Austin.

The court, after hearing the testimony, adjourned to consider the case privately. The course which will be pursued is a matter to be determined. It is generally expected that the certificate of Austin and one held by Emerson for many years, about which there is no question, will be revoked. The court is not expected to stop there.

It might imprison both the former state officials for contempt or report its findings to prosecuting Attorney Karl T. Webber for criminal proceedings, in which a conviction would mean a possible maximum sentence of 20 years in the penitentiary for both. Emerson would be charged with falsifying a public record and Austin with conspiracy to falsify the record.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH

A Most Dangerous Disease, Which Causes Serious Results, Unless Properly Treated.

Catarrh of the Stomach is very common and is known as one of the most obstinate diseases, which, when neglected or improperly treated with cheap patent medicines, tonics, drugs, pills and other secret quack remedies results in a broken down constitution and often consumption and death.

Catarrh of the Stomach, like every other disease of the stomach except cancer, is the result of poor digestion. The digestive organs have become weak, there is a lack of gastric juice, your food is only half digested, and as a result you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, heartburn, vomiting, water-brash, tenderness at pit of stomach, slimy tongue, bad taste in the mouth, constipation, pain in limbs and face, sleeplessness, nausea, belching of gas, diarrhoea, sick headaches, dizziness, mental depression, nervous weakness, and many other common symptoms.

If your stomach cannot digest the food you eat, then the stomach needs a rest, as that is the only way you can get rid of your catarrh, but in the meantime your body needs plenty of nourishment, because you must live and in order to live you must eat, and if you must eat, your food must be properly digested, and if your stomach is too weak to do the work, then you must get a substitute that will do the work.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the only known substitute that will digest your food as well as any healthy stomach. They contain vegetables and fruit essences, aseptic pepsin (gov. test), golden seal and diastase, the very elements necessary to digest all foods.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a secret remedy and for that very reason thousands of physicians all over the United States recommend them to their patients for catarrh of the stomach, dyspepsia of all kinds, and other stomach troubles. Experiments and tests have proven that one grain of the active principle contained in these tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are in the form of pleasant tasting tablets or lozenges and are sold in large fifty-cent boxes at all drug stores. Send us your name and address and we will send you a free sample package. The relief you will get from this trial package alone will convince you of the merits of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. WOMEN AND CHILDREN LEAD DELEWARE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE FIGHT

MRS. ELIZABETH MARKS, WILMINGTON, DEL.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 8.—"Wet" or "Dry?" This loquacious greeting has become the common form of salutation throughout Delaware. Nothing has ever before stirred the residents of Delaware as this local option campaign, which closed November 5.

An interesting feature of the campaign was the prominent part the women and children took. In fact, the women did the biggest part of the work. They acted as detectives to spot illegal voting.

Women went to the registration places and as each voter approached the window they buttonholed him, questioned him as to his residence, to learn if he was registering legally. Prominent among the women working for the local option side was Mrs. Leonard M. Lake.

Mrs. Leonard M. Lake, of St. Louis, vice president of the National Catholic Total Abstinence Society. While not an orator, Mrs. Elizabeth Marks, president of the Women's Federation, was equally as arduous in her work for the prohibition cause as Mrs. Lake. It was Mrs. Marks who organized the women of the city into a working body.

Mrs. Isaac W. Bowers, wife of a well-known business man of Wilmington, is the head of the women's detective corps. The campaign without the women would have been comparatively tame affair.

DEMANDS LASTING PEACE

Between the United States and Japan
—Small Incidents Magnified by American Jingoism.

Tokio, Nov. 8.—Baron Hayashi, the minister of foreign affairs, in an interview Thursday broke the official silence so long maintained by Japan in regard to affairs with the United States. The foreign minister has only kind words for the United States, says that Japan's relations with America are cordial and that lasting peace and friendship are demanded. Part of his statement is as follows:

"The only thing raising doubt in the mind of the public here is the immigration question; but, for from being unduly exercised, the people of Japan are satisfied to rest the case, in full confidence that it will be adjusted in a manner worthy of both nations."

"According to reports from various sources dealing with what is called the Japanese situation, it appears certain that by a portion of the press of the United States, bent on representing an ultimate conflict with Japan as inevitable, and in order apparently to subvert this special purpose, events of trifling importance are magnified into matters portending grave results."

"It is true that at the time of the San Francisco troubles popular mortification and resentment were aroused, but our people know that the hostile feeling in the United States was only local and temporary, and their confidence in the fairness and justness of Americans never deserted them, even in these trying days."

In conclusion Minister Hayashi said: "The attitude assumed by the Japanese government, which, after all, is only a reflection of public sentiment, is that they are convinced that the cause of civilization as well as community interests demands lasting peace and friendship between the nations bordering the Pacific."

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR TURKEYS

Supply is Said to be Better This Year
Than It Has Been For Some Time Past.

Prospects of the turkey crop this year are better in two respects than those of last year.

There will be more turkeys in the market, and they will be of better quality. The output of turkeys this year in Texas will be equal to that of Kentucky, and Oklahoma is also said to have a larger crop than last year. These will supply the eastern markets, and the West Virginia and Ohio turkeys will find a market here.

The Ohio crop is greater this year than last, and the reports sent out earlier in the year that the heavy rains in the spring had killed many of the young birds is said to be without foundation.

Commission men look for heavy receipts during October and by the time Thanksgiving rolls around there will be plenty of turkeys to supply the demand. They also state that the prices will be a little lower than last season, as there are many held in cold storage. The present price is about 16 to 18 cents a pound dressed, about 2 cents lower than last year at this time. Cranberries will be cheaper than last year, perhaps a difference of two cents a quart.

SANTA FE FINED FOR REBATING

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 8.—Judge Olin Wellborn, in the United States district court, Thursday, fined the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe company $230,000 for rebating. The fine was what the court denominated "an intermediate penalty," the maximum which might have been assessed being $1,320,000, and the minimum $60,000.

Robust.

Mrs. L. P. Skonnard, of Minneapolis, writes: "I feel it my duty to tell others what your cod liver preparation, Vinol, has done for my little boy. He was sick for two years, pale, and had no appetite. We tried different doctors and medicines, and had given up all hopes that he would recover, but thanks to Vinol he is a well and healthy boy, and I want to recommend Vinol to every mother who has a weak or sickly child."

Our local druggist, Frank D. Hall, says: "We want to say to every mother in Newark that our cod liver preparation, Vinol, will build your children up into strong, robust, healthy children. We have never sold anything equal to it in our store for this purpose, and we will return your money if it fails."

Is there a mother in Newark who will ignore such a generous offer as this? Frank D. Hall, Druggist.

BUCKWHEAT CAKES

Will be a Luxury the Coming Winter
as Grain, Maple Syrup and Butter
Have Soared in Price.

Buckwheat is soaring, not gently rising in the creek, but going rapidly higher in price. Dealer report buckwheat flour very hard to secure at any price, and the whole prices are now at $1.25 per bushel. It was reported early in the year that the crop would be satisfactory, unless liberal shipments come from other sections of the country, there is likely to be a scarcity in local markets.

Every indication points to higher prices for cakes this winter. In the first place, the price will probably be higher than ever before. Then maple syrup is getting scarcer every day. New York states reported practically out of the market already as the result of heavy export from new sources. According to good authority tobacco companies have been using maple syrup heavily in the manufacture of pipe tobacco and scrap tobacco. Cereal companies are also said to be drawing upon the supply.

The Ohio Fuel are 400 feet down on the Dorsey and Robinson farm, southwest of town. They put in the short string on the George O'Daniel well on North street, yesterday, at a depth of 700 feet. On the Mrs. Morgan Williams well west of town they are 300 feet in the line. On the Charles G. Griffin No. 2 well west of town they are 600 feet in the line. Their A. J. Cada No. 5 north of town is due for the sand Saturday.

The Halsey company No. 3 well on the O. Dumbald (formerly the Tight) farm, west of town, is down 1400 feet. On the Sigler-Fulton well west of town, they are down 1,000 feet. On the B. S. Everett No. 1 well, in the same field, is down 500 feet. Derrick material is being hauled on the grounds for No. 2. Spudding was started Monday on No. 3 on the Worth Geiger farm in the Union field. Location No. 5 has been made on the John Montgomery farm, west of Granville.

The Columbus company have made a location on the John Timmes' farm in the Union field. A rig is being built on the S. Crist farm in the same field. They have a rig up on Marshall Emery's farm in the same field. The Stark well, west of town, is being drilled in today. The drillers have made good time on this one as they have been but 18 days at it. Their well on the John Owens farm on North street is 1000 feet down.

Since Mr. M. W. Foster the new field superintendent of the Central Ohio has come into the field, he has been rushing things. Location No. 3 has been made on the E. M. Downer farm in the McKean field. Rig material is on the ground for location No. 2 on Jacob Warner's farm on Loudon street. No. 1 is being drilled. A derrick has been hauled to the farm of Mrs. E. M. P. Brister in the McKean field. Four additional strings of tools will be put into the field at once—making nine strings in all.

RHEUMATISM CANNOT BE CURED UNLESS URIC-O IS USED.

Sudden Deaths, Heart Failure and Paralysis are Caused by Poisonous Uric and Rheumatic Acids.

The Rheumatic person is skeptical regarding the claims of almost any remedy advertised as a cure for Rheumatism and one can scarcely blame him for being so. All the plasters and liniments combined never actually cured a case of Rheumatism. They may relieve it in one quarter, but it is sure to break out somewhere else. The only true way to cure Rheumatism, is to drive it from the system, for as long as the Uric and Rheumatic Acid remains in the blood, one is never entirely free from the trouble. This is where the value of Uric-O as a permanent cure for Rheumatism comes in. It seeks out the Rheumatic poison in the blood, muscles and kidneys, renders it inert and harmless and drives it out of the system. This is why Uric-O is such an admirable and effective cure for Rheumatism.

The chief reason that Uric-O is such a wonderful cure for Rheumatism is, that it is designed and prepared to cure Rheumatism and Rheumatism only. It is composed of perfect antidotes for the rheumatic acid poison in the system. That is the secret of its wonderful success. Rheumatism simply cannot exist in a person's system if Uric-O is used.

Uric-O is sold by druggists at 50c and $1.00 the bottle, but if you will feel skeptical about its efficacy you can test it free of charge by cutting out this advertisement and sending the same together with your name and address, also the name of your druggist, to The Smith Drug Company, Syracuse, N. Y., and they will send you a sample bottle free. To persons who write and say they have never used Uric-O, and want to test it thoroughly, and will agree to take it systematically according to directions, they frequently give a free bottle.

Uric-O is sold and recommended in Newark by Frank D. Hall, North Side Square.

MEETING AT CLEVELAND ADJOURNED UNTIL JANUARY

Youngstown and Akron, Putting Up the Same Old Row—Marty Hogan Wants In.

Cleveland, Nov. 8.—There will be a split in the Ohio and Pennsylvania League unless the circuit is redistricted. The gauntlet was thrown down yesterday afternoon at the fall meeting of the league at the Hollenden, and with Akron and Youngstown will go Newcastle and Sharon. Mansfield, Marion, Newark and Lancaster are willing to stick together for another year, while Akron and Youngstown declared that before playing in the same circuit with the four southern cities they will play independent ball. Not until this statement was made by Paul Sturgis of Mansfield did Newcastle and Sharon show their hands, and the fight was on for fun. No promises were offered to the Canton and Erie people, who were present ready to listen to some sort of a proposition, but at about $1,000 a mile to make as well as Marty Hogan, for the Zanesville club, and after a recess the club owners were unable to do anything, with the result that the meeting adjourned until next January, when the annual election will take place and the circuit arranged for the season.

Akron and Youngstown claim that they practically support the other towns, especially the southern end of the league, and demand that they be given towns where they have an equal break. The towns they figure on are Sharon, Newcastle, Erie, of the Interstate League; Canton of the Central League, and possibly Oil City and Franklin, Pa. This would give the southern end of the circuit a chance to form an organization of its own, to include Newark, Lancaster, Mansfield, Marion, Zanesville, Lima, Sandusky and Lorain. This would make strictly an Ohio league, and one that would certainly cut down the railroad expenses, as well as making a compact 8-club league circuit.

GRANVILLE NEWS

Granville, Nov. 8.—Mrs. T. J. Sheppard very charmingly entertained at luncheon Tuesday in honor of Mrs. W. C. Sheppard of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Mrs. J. R. Hopeley of Bucyrus. The afternoon was spent in needle work and a social time. Those present were Mrs. Colwell Mrs. Gilpatrick, Mrs. W. H. Johnson, Mrs. Edward Lake, Mrs. Burton Case, Mrs. C. L. Williams, Miss Eveline Robinson and Miss Inglis.

Mrs. Grace Lyons Seasholes of Philadelphia, will be in Granville, Saturday, and will remain here a few days the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. P. Ullman. Mrs. Seasholes was the first lady graduate from Denison.

Mr. B. A. Chessir and wife and daughter returned from a pleasant visit with Mrs. Chessir's parents in Stafford county, Kansas. Mr. Chessir has been looking after his farming interests in the west, having a fine farm in Stafford county. He also combined pleasure with business, and says that he had a fine time hunting ducks. He and Mrs. Chessir have been absent from Granville a month. Mr. Chessir is Granville's well known lumber dealer.

Mrs. Kate Williams of Columbus who has been visiting relatives and friends here during the past week, has returned home.

Miss Carrie Bell of Hamilton, Ohio, who has been here for a few days, has returned home.

NELSONVILLE M. O. BUBBLE.

Startling Results of an Investigation by State Examiners.

Under the heading "This Town Is Easy Pickin'" a Nelsonville (O.) paper reprints from the Columbus Citizen the following account of the results of an investigation of that town by the state examiners:

"The examiners say that Auditor John Lax looked after his private affairs and that Treasurer Anniller signed both his own name and that of the auditor to all vouchers.

"The police department kept no record of arrests, the fire department no record of fires, and the sinking fund had no minutes.

"Mayor James Sharp did the plumbing for the city, Councilman Price sold all the supplies, and Member of Board of Service Sillcott furnished the coal to the light plant.

"Councilman Emmett Keenan is also city engineer, and his office kept no records of plats, and nothing could be found out as to the cost of street improvements."

The examiners also reported that the electric lights cost Nelsonville $85.14 a year. When asked for more detailed information a citizen of high standing wrote:

"Figures of Examiner Smith do not include depreciation, interest, insurance or water. Arcs are supposed to be 2,000 candlepower burning on moonlight schedule. Few nights if any pass without some lights out, and often all are out the entire night. I understand that the local electric light company agreed to furnish the same lights for $60 per year each, with a percentage off for outage.

"When the waterworks were operated alone the net profit per year was about $900. Since the light plant was started the waterworks have run in debt and this in the face of the fact that they are pumping less water at higher prices than before, the advance in price amounting to about $1,000 per year."

Set For Half Price.

The mayor of Leona, Ia., tells how the city's electric light plant was sold for half price as follows:

"Original cost $10,000; sold for $5,000—sold because the city was getting in debt worse every year on account of plant. At one time the city had to issue bonds in the sum of $5,000 to pay outstanding warrants. This was four years ago. Two years ago, when the city sold the plant, there were about $3,000 outstanding warrants. Cost of night about the same now as when the plant was owned by the city, but service much better."

A local authority states that $13,000 had been spent on construction and equipment before the plant was sold.

"ESTIMATE" VERSUS BID.

Curious and Instructive Experience of Ashland, Wis.

Last January Ashland, Wis., voted in favor of installing a municipal electric light plant. Votes were secured on the basis of an "estimate" that the complete plant would cost $80,000, this "estimate" being made by Professor W. C. Kirschner of the University of Wisconsin, who the lighting committee stated had been employed by over forty cities of Wisconsin as a consulting engineer. This committee thus concluded its report:

"After thoroughly going over the estimates the committee can state that the outside cost of this entire proposition, including everything, will be $89,600 divided as follows: Concrete and earth dam, spillway and power house, $18,500; turbines and electrical machinery at power house, $15,500; electric transmission line, $12,000; substation building and equipment, $5,400; arc lighting system, $8,075; incandescent lighting system, $15,480; land necessary for dam and storage rights, $7,500; engineering plans, superintendent, incidentals, $3,735; total, $89,000. "In every case these figures represent the highest possible cost for the work, as it has been the intention of

SOME STATEMENTS REGARDING NEW THEORY

Followers of Cooper and His Novel Ideas Give Reason for Their Belief in Him.

With a theory that human health is dependent on the stomach and with a medicine which he says proves this theory, L. T. Cooper, a comparatively young man, has built up an immense following during the past year.

Cooper has visited most of the leading cities of the country, and in each city has aroused a storm of discussion about his beliefs and his medicines. Wherever he has gone, people have called upon him by tens of thousands, and his preparation has sold in immense quantities.

The sale of this medicine has now spread over the entire country, and is growing enormously each day. In view of this, the following statements from two of the great number of followers which he now has, are of general interest.

Mrs. Agnes Vigenhousser, of 942 St. Louis Avenue, Chicago, has the following to say on the subject of the Cooper preparations: "For more than ten years I was broken down in health. I could not sleep and I was very nervous. Gradually I began to lose my memory, until I could not remember things from one day to another. I had severe pains and cramps in my body, and I would at times see dark spots before my eyes. I was unable to do any work whatever, as my strength was failing. I had no appetite, nor could I take any medicine.

"I had about given up hope of ever being well again when I read of Mr.

Cooper's remedies. I decided to give them a trial, and I began to feel better at once. After taking the medicine for two weeks I can say that I am a new woman. I can eat with enjoyment, the pains in my body have left me, and I am stronger than I have been for years.

"I cannot say enough for Mr. Cooper's remedies. They are wonderful, for they have done everything claimed for them in my case."

Another statement by Mr. W. B. Stewart, 109 W. Madison St., Chicago, is as follows: "I have had stomach trouble for years, and anyone who is afflicted this way knows what an awful distressed feeling it causes. Many a time I have felt that I would give most any price to be cured. It was by accident that I heard of this man Cooper's remedies. I immediately made up my mind to buy a treatment of him. I used it for about two weeks, and it is impossible to tell how much good it has done me. I feel altogether different. I have more life and energy than I have had for years. This medicine certainly does stimulate and strengthen the whole system. Tired feeling and weak condition of the stomach has entirely passed away. I feel well again."

We sell Cooper's celebrated medicines which have made this wonderful record in all parts of the country. —City Drug Store.

Delicate Women

who suffer from sleeplessness, backache, or pain will find relief by taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are quick in action, relieving headache in a few minutes, while nearly every other form of pain yields to their soothing influence. A great many women have found that a few carried with them, insures immunity from suffering.

"I am one who has suffered for 12 years every month. For several years I took doctors' medicine, until I gave up to suffer until death. One day when I was in great pain, Mr. Sales, for whom I was working, gave me a box of Anti-Pain Pills. At first I refused to take them, but he insisted on my giving them a trial, and I must say they are the only thing that I ever took that relieved me without putting me to sleep. Last August I began to use them and to-day I am willing to say that I am cured as I had only one pill this month. I recommend them to women who suffer, and believe they have without pain if they will take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills."

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM SEAT SALE.

"A good many people are unaware that seats are on sale for several different shows at one time," said Mr. Johnson of the Auditorium theater last night. "They seem to think we have only one board and can sell the tickets for only one show at a time. But when there are several shows in the house during the week the seats are all on sale and the box office is open nearly all the time. But if there is only a show in on Saturday the seats do not go on sale until the day before, or Friday. This season we have had as high as eight shows on sale at one time."

THE WALLS OF JERICHO.

It was magnificent in the unfolding, the story of the rottenness of the smart set, and the people who had the pleasure of seeing Mr. Henry Stanford and Miss Laura Burt and their capable supporting company in the "Walls of Jericho" at the Auditorium last evening, felt amply repaid for the time spent at the play house. The co-stars were excellent and after each act and after several speeches they were compelled to acknowledge the plaudits of the audience. In the third act the denunciation of the social life led by his wife was the most intensely dramatic scene in the play.

THE CUTEST GIRL IN TOWN.

Al Trahern, known from one end of the theatrical White Way to the other, has found a winner this season. He stars the well known comedienne, Miss Jessie Mae Hall, in a new musical comedy drama entitled "The Cutest Girl in Town." Miss Hall is well known for her abilities, as a singer and dancer, to say nothing of a very remarkable versatility. The plot of the new play is laid in England on the Fourth of July, and if you have ever been abroad on that eventful day, you will appreciate what it means to an American. His feelings of true patriotism fairly run riot while on the other hand his English cousins smile upon him with a feeling of haughty cynicism mingled with keen regret. The theme is certainly a good one and offers many chances for humor. The production will rival any of the kind to be produced this year. At the Auditorium tomorrow, Saturday, afternoon and night.

MISS HALL AND HER FOOT.

Jessie Mae Hall who will appear here Saturday in her latest musical drama success, is said to have the smallest foot of any woman on the stage. Miss Hall wears a very small No. 11 and has to have made to order as dealers have trouble in supplying her with the correct size. Several years ago when a Chicago paper had a contest for the woman with the smallest foot, the winner was announced and Miss Hall, in a spirit of fun, put the shoe on her foot and kicked it across the room after it had been buttoned.

LACKAYE IN THE BONDMAN.

The coming of Wilton Lackaye on November 14, means a big dramatic treat. Mr. Lackaye will be seen in Hall Caine's "The Bondman," which has been running for over a year at Drury Lane theater, London. Mr. Hall Caine has released the American rights to Mr. Lackaye, believing that this popular star is the one man in America able to do justice to the character of "Jason," the most important in the play. Mr. Lackaye brings with him a company of 60 people and three car loads of scenery. The story of "The Bondman" is similar to that of the book of the same name, and tells of the power of Christian love over pagan vengeance. He brings with him the entire English production which is on the most stupendous scale. The demand for seats is exceptionally large.

FRANCIS MACMILLEN.

Alexander Zeitlin, the famous Russian sculptor, who heard Francis Macmillen at Queen's Hall, London, was so impressed by the young American's stage presence and dignified manner that he conceived the idea of making his bust. The pose was to be as the sculptor remembered the virtuoso as he stood like a statue before the vast audience that greeted him, with the Queen's Hall Symphony Orchestra for a back ground, waiting for Henry J. Wood, the famous conductor, to wield the baton as a signal to begin the Brahms concerto for violin and orchestra which was down for Macmillen to play that evening. It is considered a remarkable likeness of Macmillen as he appears when he faces his audience to play, and that the sculptor has made a striking and life-like work is evident from the fact that the bust has received notable criticism from some of the best critics in London.

Mr. Macmillen will appear at the Auditorium November 27.

SWEET KITTY BELLAIRS.

A thoroughly David Belasco event in the theatrical line will be the presentation of that writer's splendid comedy, "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," at the Auditorium within the present month.

REHEARSING A CHORUS OF HORSES FOR THE STAGE.

New York, Nov. 8.—Training a chorus of girls, even of an average degree of human intelligence, is no easy task, as any stage manager will tell you. Facing, then, the labor skill and patience necessary to train a chorus of horses, especially for a big Broadway production.

Imagine what it must mean to teach a group of nervous and skittish animals to become used to the flare of the footlights and the applause of audience, to go on and off in response to a "cue" at a given moment, to line up in certain positions, singly or in groups, to know that a bar of music or a pistol shot has particular reference to them. Dr. Martin Potter is the one man who excels in this line of training, and his services are in great demand.

CIRCUS DAY IN BOSTON.

A Boston kid of knee pants age was crying high at the circus today. While round about the circus throng was bumpin' joyously along.

Sez I to him, sez I, "Young feller, Explain yerself—why do you beller?" Sez he, "The auri-yark, aoudad, mink, The musquash, an' drill, missing link, The orang, eland, kinkajou, The quagga, on a carison, The panda, an' aye-wah kangaroo, The aye-aye, wou-wah mohoboo, The budong, bongu, banteng, gnu, The potto, pongu, wanderu, The pica, paca, poba brock, The bobac, cuscus, bontebok, The paku, pudu, puma, moose, The dugong, dingo, drill, mongoose, The hooleck, howler, markhor goat, The linsang, lion, nakong, stoat, The ibex, lizard, leu, coon, The bighorn, bison, ape, baboon, The bison, ant, bear, bubaline, The weasel, wombat, wolverene."

"Come, come," sez I, "I want the facts. Let's cut right down to plain brass tacks. The thing I want to know, young feller, Is—why in tunkit do you beller?"

His gold rim specs he mopped up dry, An' then he drew a lung deep sigh, "I scart to own this beller," sez he, "But dearth of here frustration me—Hine ille (boohee) lachrymae!"

Sez I to him, sez I, "Oh—well, Jes' what I sez I'll never tell."

TRAVELS

OF CHARLES SMITH, OVER THOUSANDS OF MILES BRINGS HIM HOME.

For Several Years With Circus Advertising Car He Will Spend Thanksgiving Here.

With cheeks as red as cherries and a vitality that depicts perfect health, Charles Smith landed home Tuesday afternoon. The youthful traveler has covered 19,870 miles this season with the advance car No. 2 of the Adam Forepaugh & Sells Bros. Circus and covered a territory bordered by the most northerly point of uninhabited Canada, and as far south as Galveston, Texas, including all the great Middle West.

"Well, has Newark anything you can't find elsewhere?" asked an Advocate reporter.

"It has everything, my boy, and Newark should be proud of its streets, and the buildings, and the generosity displayed by its citizens towards strangers.

"Why, I can easily understand why Noman (the Syrian, went away in a rage when asked to go barbe in Jordan and be clean. What I think of the dirty appearance of all the streams one encounters in traveling, and then I think to myself, 'I'd give ten dollars to jump into the canal—it's got them all beat.'"

"The most enjoyable experience I had was at San Antonio, Texas, where with the press agent, I had the honor of attending the banquet to Secretary Root, given by the Merchants' club, and met the Mexican representatives who came to conduct the secretary to President Diaz.

"One-half hour was a buzeetta. In a field where a heap of stones surrounded a billboard a rattlesnake made a grab for me, and we had a battle which I won, but weakened on getting the rattles, believing in leaving well enough alone.

"The money question is affecting the people in the Cotton Belt terribly, the banks drawing in their credits, and at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, last Saturday, 500 bales of cotton found no buyers—no money on hand to buy with."

Charley Smith is very jubilant over the fact that the Ringling Bros. (who own the Forepaugh show), had added the Barnum & Bailey circus to their Ringling and Forepaugh shows, and says the employees are as proud of the Ringling Brothers as the public is. Every day brings pleasure working for such a concern.

"This being my fourth year on the road," said Smith, "I have learned a lot in getting the most out of the glorious opportunity that travel gives—of learning lots of things books won't teach—but one misses the faces of the old folks at home in some of those lumber swamps with the coyotes singing their lay, a chant that makes you listen to the music in real earnest. I wish I could have brought to every poor family one of the turkeys I saw for a couple of weeks—seems as if there was a turkey for every Thanksgiving dinner on earth, and quail and prairie chickens by the thousands. I hope however, there will be no need of my finding the Thanksgiving turkey, but am surely thankful to Providence for the watchful care that has followed my wanderings, and has brought me home to spend the Thanksgiving day with my friends and the old folks at home."

ROLLY-POLY BILL WANTS TO BE MANAGER

Bill Smink, the roly-poly umpore, in the O. P. league, and who managed a ball team in New Castle for a couple of days a number of years ago, is after the management of the New Castle baseball club for the season of 1908. Smink would like to come to New Castle and put in a first class team. He believes that he would be able to place a winner in this city if only given a chance to do so. It is not likely that Smink will get an opportunity to show what he can do in this line—New Castle Herald.

DITHRIDGE REINSTATED

Bill Dithridge has been reinstated by the National board and his name stricken from the Marion reserve list. That means he is free to sign with any club. It will be recalled that Dithridge was suspended by Marion in the latter part of the season for the heinous offense of asking for back pay. Dithridge carried the case to the National board claiming that the Marion club had dealt with him unjustly. His claim was allowed, except the salary part, he asking for pay during the time he was under suspension.

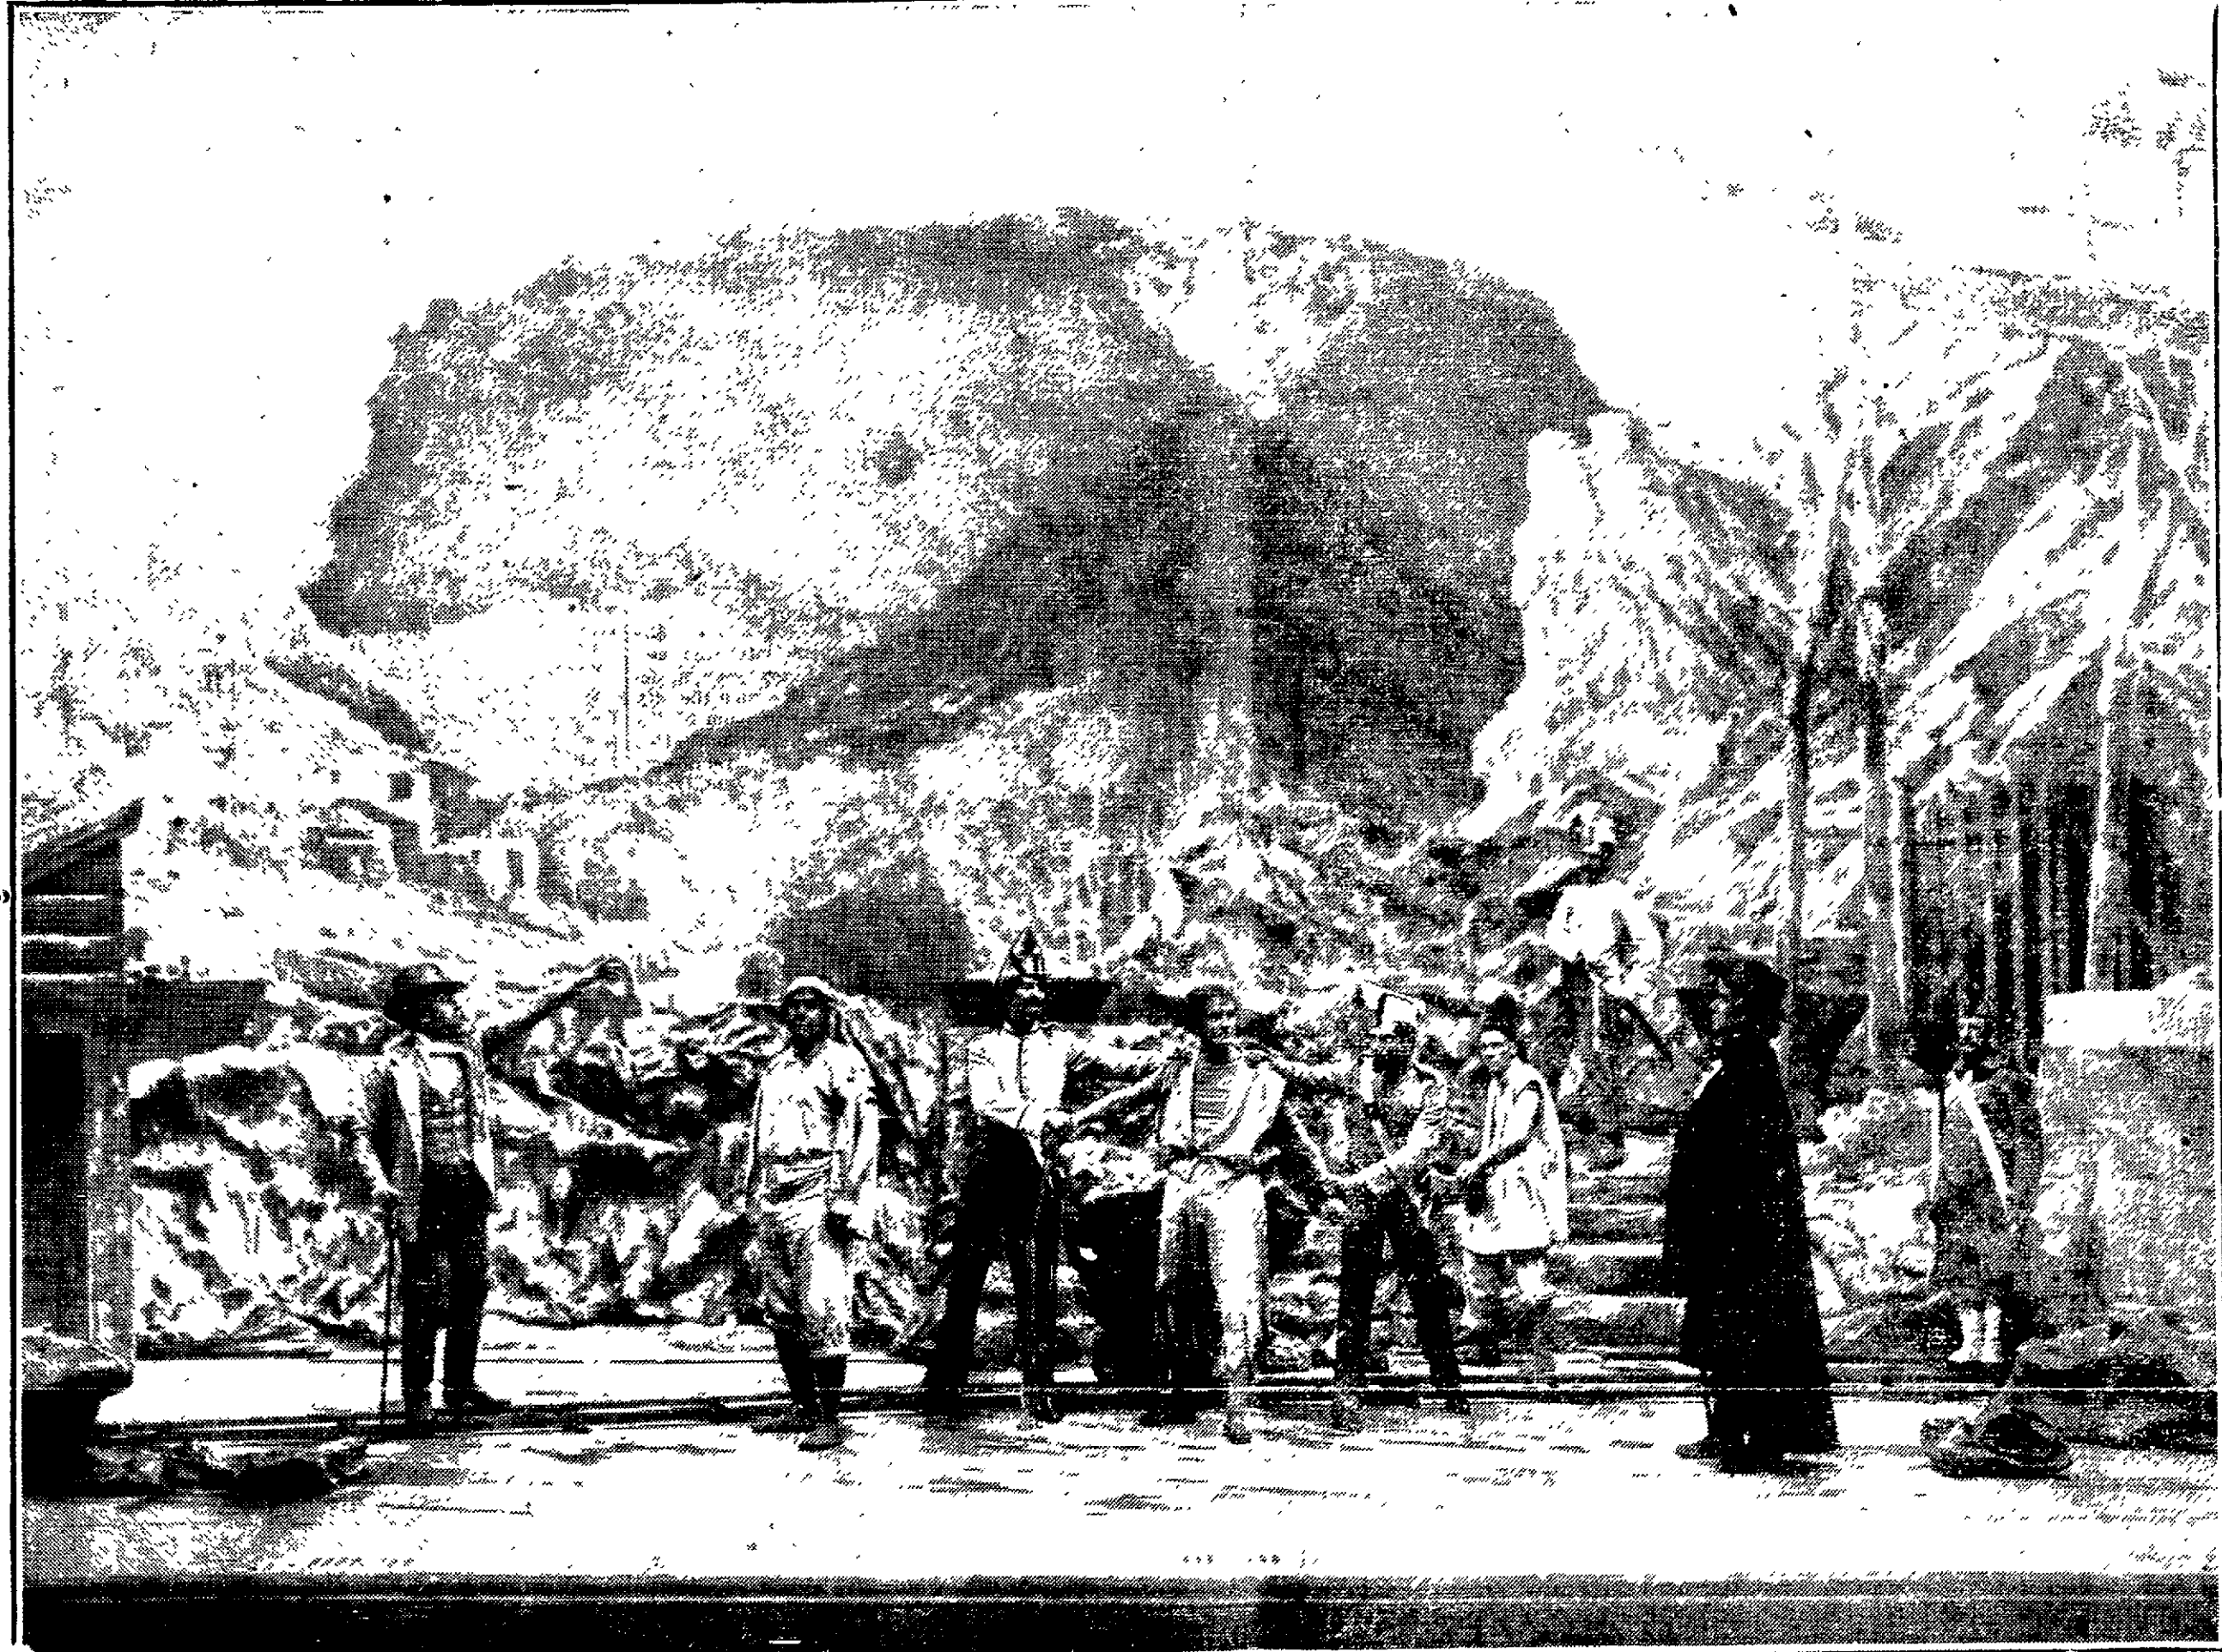

"THE MARINE" ONCE A KING, NOW A PAUPER

Boston, Nov. 8.—Only a shadow of the splendid physical specimen he was when he stripped the pugilistic laurels from Jack Dempsey, George La Blanche known throughout the sporting world several years ago as "The Marine," has been lodged in jail for the winter at his own request. The old fighter staggered into police court the other night and asked the judge to give him a winter home on Deer Island, saying that he had no even the price of a night's lodging. He was accommodated.

NEARLY DEAD

From Fumes of Natural Gas Johnstown Family Were Discovered Just in Time.

Johnstown, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Renz Gravinna and two children suffered asphyxiation to a marked degree from burned gas at their home Tuesday morning about 8 o'clock, all three fell to the floor about the same time in a perfectly helpless condition and had it not been for a chance call by a neighbor at the right time there is no telling what might have been the result.

The death of Griffin F. Rosebrough, a well known harness maker and a respected citizen of Newark, occurred at his residence in that city Wednesday evening, October 30th. Mr. Rosebrough is well known over the county, and will be remembered by many of the old soldiers now living. He is the father of Cliff Rosebrough who has just completed about two months work in Johnstown frescoing the K. of P. hall, etc.

Mrs. C. A. Day and daughter, Margaret, returned here Wednesday morning. They left a comfortable home on Wednesday of last week and returned in just one week to find their home in ashes. They will make their home temporarily with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Frederick.

Edward E. McNamee sold the J. W. Beem farm of 50 acres in Jersey township last Thursday to Harvey Hoover. Consideration, $2,800. Mr. Hoover recently returned from the West after a five years absence. By this purchase Mr. Hoover has secured a fine home.

PANTHER RUN.

Miss Anna Mauller is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Comisford celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary on Thursday. Mrs. Comisford wore her wedding dress of ten years ago. It was white cashmere with white lace coverings. A number of beautiful and costly presents were received. Mr. Comisford received two presents with a great deal of mirth. A milkbucket with strainer complete, and a tin horn. A delicious dinner was served in courses. Thirty-four were present. After dinner music and games were played. About 4 o'clock all departed for their homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Comisford many more happy anniversaries. Later—As Mr. and Mrs. Comisford were getting ready to retire for the night, they were startled by hearing the report of guns firing and other noises too numerous to mention. Mr. Comisford went to the door, and found the yard filled with neighbors, and such a belling as they received they can never forget. Mr. Comisford treated all to cigars and Mrs. Comisford invited all in and served all with a lunch. They then had more music and games, and at 11:30 o'clock all departed for their respective homes.

Mrs. T. E. Cain has repaired and built an addition to the old "Cothern homestead." It is now a house of 8 rooms, with bath complete, and they are moving there.

Charlie and Francis Flary Comisford are on the sick list.

Paul Kochedorfer returned home Monday after a very pleasant visit at Utica.

Newark Evidence For Newark People

NO SIGN NOW OF NERVOUS HEADACHE.

Whoever has suffered from one of those severe nervous headaches can read the statement given below and find the same relief as Mrs. Lindsay obtained. All that is needed is a trial of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets. They possess marvelous curative powers.

Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets Association, 53 and 55 Worth St., New York.

"Gentlemen:—Up to two months ago, before I began taking Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets I suffered greatly from nervous dyspepsia and severe headaches. I got so used to have these headaches two or three times a week I was almost distracted. The medicine I took did not seem to do me any good. I heard Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets spoken of very highly and I got a bottle at R. W. Smith's Drug Store. I had taken 4 bottles of these little tablets and have not had a sign of a headache for a month. My appetite is good; that old nervous feeling is gone and I am at least feeling like myself again thanks to Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets.

Yours truly, MRS. E. M. LINDSAY. 195 Boylston St., Newark, O. Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, 50c per bottle. Dr. Richards Laxocomfits, 25c a bottle.

NO GOOD DIGESTION WAITS ON APPETITE AND HEALTH ON BOTH.

Good digestion is not what everyone has. Some have mighty poor digestion and would give much to have the digestion that youth usually possess. It can be gotten. There is a drug store in Newark the Mecca of all Dyspeptics and stomach sufferers in the city, because it has on sale a remedy tried and true, the finished product of thought and experiment, which cures all such victims. It is called Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets and the following gentleman has used them and tell the story of his case.

Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablet Association, 53 and 55 Worth St., New York. Gentlemen:—I was in bad shape when I began taking Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets which I got at R. W. Smith's Drug Store about two months ago. I felt well after taking four bottles of this wonderful medicine. I had to give up work for a while last winter as I was very weak and run down and lost in weight. I was hungry all the time but hardly dared eat because I knew that the result would be distress and misery for hours. I am happy to say that I am now all right, thanks to the use of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets.

Yours truly, JNO. A. PRIOR. 30 S. First St., Newark, O. Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, 50c a bottle. Dr. Richards Laxocomfit, 25c a bottle.

THE HEALER IS HERE.

The victims of indigestion are all around us; we meet them everyday and would like to cure them. This can be done by telling them of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, that have cured many in Newark. Here is one of many:

Mrs. Anna E. Roberts, 197 Mound street, Newark, Ohio, says: Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablet Association, 53 and 55 Worth street, New York.

Gentlemen:—If there is any other remedy equal to Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, I do not know of it. I got a bottle at R. W. Smith's drug store, which cured me of a bad case of indigestion and dyspepsia.

Yours truly, ANNA E. ROBERTS. 197 Mound street, Newark, Ohio. Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, 50c a bottle. Dr. Richards Laxocomfits, 25c a bottle.

WORTH AN EFFORT.

Things Worth Having Are Worth the Effort to Get Them.—Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets and Laxocomfits Prove Their Work.

The best possible advice for millions of stomach sufferers, who have vainly tried medicines and fads on diet, is to try living for two months on one of the so-called "blood making" medicines alone, and then try food and see if it isn't the best medicine and that it is made effective by using Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets. We feel sure you will be compensated after a fair and square trial.

Mr. J. W. Applegate, 250 Broad street, Newark, Ohio, says: "The dyspepsia which had troubled me so long has been made to disappear entirely since using Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets. I was in the worst condition possible, caused by this dread ailment. I suffered from acidity of the stomach and there were very few things I dared eat, knowing full well the tortures I would have to endure if I partook of anything the least heavy. Life was really a burden to me, but along came your tablets and having had my attention called to them at R. W. Smith's drug store, and after procuring them and taking them according to directions, my whole system has been toned and invigorated and I thank you most heartily for all these benefits. I will recommend them at all times. Nothing better."

CURED AT 462 GRANVILLE STREET.

When the case is so bad that work has to be stopped it takes a remedy that attacks the very foundation of the trouble to restore health and normal conditions. This is the character of work done by Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, as the following illustrates:

Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablet Association, 53 and 55 Worth street, New York.

A TIRED STOMACH RESTED.

Sleep, nature's sweet restorer, that knits up the raveled sleeve of care and rests tired bodies. What, however, can rest a tired stomach and bring it to again strength to perform its work smoothly. That great cure which has done so much for Newark, tired stomachs is the sweet restorer of a stomach weary from overwork. It is called Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets and can be had at R. W. Smith's drug store.

Mrs. Minnie Fenner, 139 Leroy street, says: Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablet Association, 53 and 55 Worth street, New York City.

Gentlemen:—I cannot speak too strongly in praise of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets. About a month ago I got a bottle of these Tablets at R. W. Smith's drug store, and as soon as I began using them I noticed a marked improvement in my health. For almost two years I had been subject to frequent attacks of indigestion and had tried many remedies both in liquid and tablet form. My appetite was poor; felt distressed after eating, and had dizzy and fainting spells, I can honestly say after taking only three bottles of your remedy, I am entirely cured of all my old troubles and shall deem it a pleasure to speak to all my friends about this splendid remedy. I thank you very much for all the good they have done me and wish you much success in this locality.

Yours truly, MRS. MINNIE FENNER. Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, 50c a bottle. Dr. Richards Laxocomfits, for constipation, 25c a bottle.

DYSPEPSIA'S DISTRESS.

How forlorn and useless one's life seems when the stomach refuses to digest and dread dyspepsia with all its evil train of nerve disorder, headache and heart palpitation, has sized you in its grasp. To restore such a stomach to its normal powers of healthy digestion is the peculiar positive action of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets. Cures without number attest the use of these Tablets; one of which is here given from your own home city.

Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablet Association, 53 and 55 Worth street, New York.

"Gentlemen:—I cannot speak too strongly in praise of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets. I got a bottle of these Tablets at R. W. Smith's drug store about a month ago and since I began using this medicine I have noticed the most marked improvement in my health. I have been subject to severe attacks of indigestion for about two years and have tried most every remedy I heard of. Everything I ate seemed to distress me; my appetite was very poor and I suffered greatly from dizziness and fainting and was very miserable. I think I used to have the worst headaches of anybody that ever lived. I can truthfully say that after taking three bottles of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets I am entirely relieved of all my old troubles and shall take pleasure in speaking of my friends about this splendid remedy.

Yours truly, MRS. M. A. GOSHEN, "344 Buckingham street, Newark, Ohio." Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, 50c per bottle. Dr. Richards Laxocomfits, 25c per bottle.

NOTHING LIKE IT FOR CURING NEWARK INDIGESTION.

Yes, it occurred right in your own city. Not in some other way off place. The sufferer had indigestion and lives at 192 North Fourth street. This is what she says:

Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablet Association, 53 and 55 Worth street, New York.

Gentlemen:—I can hardly believe myself to be the same person I was before getting a bottle of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets at R. W. Smith's. I had dyspepsia and stomach troubles in most disagreeable forms. The Tablets I believe are going to cure me.

Yours truly, C. T. CRIPPEN, 192 North Fourth St., Newark, O. Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, 50c a bottle. Dr. Richards Laxocomfits, 25c a bottle.

THE DYSPEPSIA ERADICATOR—CAN THIS BE TRUE?—YES.

How do you know it is true? Did the people who sell it say so? No, the people who bought it said so. Who are they and where do they live? They are residents of Newark, where you live and you probably know some of them. Here is what one of many says:

Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablet Association, 53 and 55 Worth street, New York. Gentlemen:—In my case your Tablets proved beneficial to me; done for me all they claimed, and I could recommend the Tablets to any one that is afflicted as I was. I purchased these Tablets at the drug store of R. W. Smith.

CURED IN NEWARK.

It has been tried in Newark and it is proven that what has been done in other countries and the islands of the sea has been done here.

Dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach troubles give way to Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets wherever found.

Hope for all sufferers from these ailments can now be made glad facts at home.

Mrs. Wm. Rice, 182 1/2 East Main street, Newark, Ohio, says:

"Recently I procured a bottle of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets at R. W. Smith's drug store, and have given them a good trial and must say that they have benefited me wonderfully. I do not think there is any medicine their equal for stomach disturbances. They took hold of my case at once, in fact, so much so that they have entirely cured me. Your Tablets did what no other remedy could. They were truly a revelation, for I could not have believed that there was anything that could do what your remedy has done."

A NEWARK DYSPEPTIC ASTOUNDED BECAUSE CURED.

Miracles are happening which are beyond the comprehension of a finite mind. Some cures come under this head and astonish the one upon whom the cure has been worked. The fact, however, remains, that belief in Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets is the result solely and entirely of cures. Here is the story of one of them which occurred right in Newark.

Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablet Association, 53 and 55 Worth street, New York.

Gentlemen:—A friend who knew how I suffered from dyspepsia went to R. W. Smith's drug store, four or five weeks ago and got me a bottle of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets. I started taking them with little or no faith, for I had tried many medicines before without success; but it is a fact, that my health began to improve almost at once. And, mind you, I was greatly troubled with sour stomach, and there were very few things that agreed with me at all. I also suffered much from constipation and had to use cathartics with great frequency. Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets have made by troubles disappear and I am feeling as well as I ever did in my life. The constipation and bowel trouble has also been relieved with the use of the yellow pills that come with the Tablets.

ANOTHER NEWARK CHRONIC CURED OF DYSPEPSIA.

One Sufferer Less in Newark—No Regrets.

Before Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets appeared in Newark there was a power of dyspeptics in the town, but now they are growing less every day. They are being cured and show it in their lives which are now so much different and happy. What joy this one must feel after a diet of cereals for so long—he can eat anything now. And his strength is coming back to him every day.

C. M. Retherford must be mighty happy these days, for he says: "I was a victim to chronic dyspepsia for years, and at last had to live a great deal on cereals. My strength was reduced so that a little work would tire me completely. At times, also, I was dizzy and had heart palpitation. All symptoms have disappeared since I began taking Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, which I procured at R. W. Smith's drug store, and I am improving rapidly."

IS CERTAINLY NEXT-DOOR PROOF

Claims Are Easily Made, But Not Always Easily Proved, Unless There Is Real Merit.

OLD COMPLAINTS DISAPPEARED

Relief and Complete Cure Are Greatly Appreciated, as They Were Entirely Unexpected.

We like to furnish home evidence; to back up every statement with plenty of proof. Your own neighbors, after being benefited, tell you of their experience. This may be called next-door proof.

Mrs. D. Van Winkle, 332 West Church street, Newark, Ohio, says: "All of my old-time troubles have been made to disappear since I began taking Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, and my health has improved very much. In fact, I might say that they have put me in perfect condition. The relief and complete cure in my case, you can be greatly appreciated, for I never expected to derive results. I had been suffering for a long time from dyspepsia, and having heard of your remedy, I procured a package at R. W. Smith's drug store. The Laxocomfits have also relieved me of a bad case of constipation. My system has had a general overhauling through the combination of your remedies, and I have come out the victor. Thanks to your sterling remedy."

THE STOMACH DELIGHT.

Heart's delight is that which affects the life pleasantly. So it is with that which makes the stomach feel good, in fact, has the happy faculty of making you not know you have a stomach. To a dyspeptic this would be joy, indeed, for he, of all mankind, knows he has a stomach, and a disordered one at that. Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets will make that stomach a delight instead of the opposite. They will do for him what they did for this Newark resident.

W. M. Donahue, 441 Woods avenue, Newark, Ohio, says:

"Recently I procured a bottle of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets at R. W. Smith's drug store, and have given them a good trial and must say that they have benefited me wonderfully. I do not think there is any medicine their equal for stomach disturbances. They took hold of my case at once, in fact, so much so, that they have greatly helped me. They were truly a revelation, for I could not have believed that there was anything that could do what your remedy has done. I speak of your Tablets wherever I go, and always shall, for I think a good thing should always be praised."

CHRONIC CASES CURED IN NEWARK.

It is easy enough to be pleasant when life goes on like a song, but life's songs are all dirges to a chronic dyspeptic. Talk is cheap—facts alone satisfy such conditions. Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets are the vital facts of cure in such cases, and the proofs are right in your own city, as the following illustrates:

Mrs. M. Nagy, of 28 North Williams street, Newark, says: I went to R. W. Smith's store a few weeks ago and procured a bottle of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets. I had been afflicted for a long time with dyspepsia and could eat only the lightest food. I was hungry all the time, but did not dare to satisfy my craving. At times I would grow faint and it was difficult to keep from falling, the least exertion played me out entirely. Very nervous. As I said before, I got your medicine and took it according to directions, with the result that I improved so rapidly that I am astonished, for I could not believe such a thing possible. I have not been bothered since I began your treatment, and I can only praise and wish you success for your remedy.

DYSPEPTICS.

Sufferers From Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Constipation, Have Not Only Black Fridays, But About Every Day in the Seven is of That Funeral Hue.

Consequently they do not enjoy life. They do not laugh very often. They are to be pitied and, if possible, helped. The greatest help to them would be a cure. How life puts on a new color scheme to such victims is demonstrated by the use of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets. Read the evidence.

Mr. James K. Jennings, 63 Wilson street, Newark, Ohio, says:

"My digestion was bad, so much so, I lived entirely on cereals. I was losing flesh daily. My heart worried me a great deal on account of the fluttering which was caused by the least excitement and I would get so dizzy I would have to take hold of something to keep from falling, but since I came across Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets at R. W. Smith's drug store, and after taking them for the past few weeks, I am really astonished at their results. They have put my health on a sound basis, and I feel no longer any of those symptoms of which I had suffered previously and I give your remedy the credit. They are the best that ever came under my observation."

TEN YEARS OF DYSPEPSIA CURED IN NEWARK.

One-third of a life-time suffering the tortures of dyspepsia. Lived on breakfast foods. Did not enjoy Christmas dinners for ten years. Now astonishment has taken the place of his dyspepsia, because he is cured. Ask Martin Thacker, 94 Jefferson street, about Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, or you can ask R. W. Smith about them.

Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablet Association, 53 and 55 Worth street, New York.

Gentlemen:—I suffered from chronic dyspepsia for ten years and finally got so that I had to live almost entirely on cereals for I could hardly digest anything else. I was losing flesh every day and kn w that I could not live unless I could get relief soon. The simplest work would exhaust me and any slight excitement would make my heart beat like mad. At times I got so dizzy that I had to take hold of a chair to keep from falling.

I went to R. W. Smith's drug store some weeks ago, got a bottle of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets and began taking them. With the continued use of these tablets I am improving so rapidly that I am actually astonished and would not believe such thing could be possible if I did not see it happen in my own case.

WEAK FROM DYSPEPSIA.

Made Strong—How?

The trouble with dyspepsia is it affects the whole system, weakening the vital forces so as to make one lethargic and averse to activity. To cure these conditions by removing the cause is the peculiar province of Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablets, as the following illustration Miss Nancy Adams, 87 North Williams street, writes us:

"I was weak and run down when I began to take your medicine, which I got at R. W. Smith's drug store. I had lost weight and my work was interrupted by
